he engaged in the grain business at Lehigh, (Kansas) which he was eminently successful, and where he was considered as a foremost citizen. Local readers will easily know that these words are written of Mr. Karl Ehrlich who served his neighbors acceptably on township and school boards. In 1883 he was married and is the father of six children, namely, Karl, Bernhard, Herbert, Martha and Maria

KARL EHRLICH
REGESTRAR OF DEEDS

[illegible] intelligent, vigorous young man [illegible] reached his "majority" landed in Marion County. He came from Russia, where he was born in 1865. In his native land he had been well educated, and spoke fluently the Russian and German languages. But the American tongue was a strange new thing to him. He applied himself diligently, however, to mastery of English, and was soon able to converse intelligently, with his new friends. At first farmed, but soon tiring of rural life he engaged in the grain business at Lehigh, (Kansas) in which he was eminently successful, and where he was recognized as a forsept citizen. Local readers will easily know that these words are written of Mr. Karl Ehrlich. He served his neighbors acceptably on township and school boards. In 1883 he was married and is the father of six children namely, Karl, Bernhard, Herbert, Martha and Maria Ethel and Eugenie. Mr. Ehrlich is a member of the Mennonite Church. In 1894 he suffered injuries in the Kansas-Texas at Emporia which cost him a hand (arm). He was elected Registrar of Deeds in 1897, and re-elected in 1899. He is a fine officer, a fine gentleman, and a worthy representative of the sturdy people of his nationality who [illegible] so much to the wealth of this County and to a permanent supremacy of the Republican Party.

[illegible] above write up was below a 4"x6" picture of Grandpa [illegible] as included on a full page of pictures and [illegible] of Marion County elected officials, [illegible] in the Marion County Museum. There are pictures [illegible] on display in the Marion Museum.

[illegible] was copied from the Marion Record (weekly newspaper) [illegible], Kansas, dated Friday, January 18, 1901.

acres, of which one hundred and ten acres are under cultivation. The family have a pleasant and agreeable household. The two children that have been born to our subject are John M., who married Blanche Whitney; and Benjamin, who married Mattie Speece. In politics, Mr. Stevens adheres to the party in which he was reared, and votes the Democratic ticket.

JACOB AND JOHN EHRLICH, proprietors of the Cottonwood Valley Mills at Marion, Kan., are the members of the firm doing business under the firm name of Ehrlich Bros. They are men of force and vim, and are making a great success of this plant.

John Ehrlich was born January 1, 1847, in the far-distant government of Saratow, on the Volga River, in far-off Russia, a place made familiar to American readers through the graphic pen of Kennan, and at the same place occurred the birth of the younger brother, John, December 25, 1853. There the family has lived for one hundred and fifteen years, and the old homestead is still in the possession of the family.

Three brothers came together to America, Jacob, John, and another, Karl, who is now a farmer and good citizen of Lehigh, Marion County. The two first-named knew what they wanted, and soon selected a good location, and in 1877, one year after locating here, the first mill was erected upon this site. This was at a cost of $7,000, and had a capacity of twenty barrels; three years later a fifteen-horse power engine was added, which raised the capacity to thirty-five barrels, and here the business was carried on and kept increasing until in 1884 it became necessary to tear the old mill down and erect a new.

By coming one and a-half miles down the creek, the firm increased the water power, the investment in water power alone costing about $1,000, and here they built a mill that cost them $20,000, including machinery. In December, 1884, the present immense mill was opened, and in 1886 the great elevator was erected with a capacity of twenty-five thousand bushels, at a cost of $3,500. The business has been carried on with such good judgment and wise management that it has been successful from the beginning. The present mill has a capacity of seventy-five barrels of flour and twenty-five of corn and rye, and its dimensions are 28x43, and it is two and one-half stories in height. The elevator is 32x43, and all of the latest improvements in machinery have been put in. Four men beside the proprietors are continually required to manage it. They feed four or five hundred cattle in connection with the mill, and they do a general merchant and exchange business.

The marriage of Jacob Ehrlich took place in September, 1866, to Miss Anna Ehrlich, of the same place of birth as himself, and the following children have been added to his family: Maria, Johannes (deceased), Anna, Jacob, David, Karl, Louisa, Eva and Kassia (twins), Johannah, Einike and Jonah.

The marriage of John Ehrlich was celebrated December 30, 1878, with Miss Lydia Ehrlich, who was an old acquaintance in Russia and a sister of his brother's wife. His family is as follows: Lydia, Asael, Constantine, Charley, David, Ferdinand, Maria and Anna. Jacob resides upon the old home place where the mill was first erected. Both brothers are members of the Brethren Church, and are men who are held in great esteem in their neighborhood. John and Jacob are Republicans, and believe in the principles of that body, although they take little part in politics.

PHILIP S. CARPENTER. Born among the hills of New York State, and knowing what it is to take off enough stone from an acre or two of ground to surround it with fence, our subject must have found it indeed a change to come to the rolling prairie of Kansas, where stone of any size commands a

FOREWORD

I'm deeply indebted to Kathy O'Malley of Mt. Ida, AR for allowing me to photocopy her copy of The Russian Letters-A Journey by Johannes and Lydia Ehrlich the authors of these letters. Her mother, Leona is a daughter of John and Lydia Ehrlich. They were journeying back to Russia to visit their parents and brothers and sisters. The letters and cards were written to their children that stayed in Marion,KS. The whereabouts of the original correspondence is unknown.

The Ehrlichs intermarried with cousins a number of times which makes for confusion and there are several names mentioned that needed identifying so Mrs. O'Malley has identified and clarified to help the reader.

Three of the letters were written by Lydia and the others by John Ehrlich. Lydia spent most of her time with her mother, Catherine Elizabeth Brandt Ehrlich at Kanischovs-Muhle, a flour mill on the Jlowlja River, west of the Volga River. John Ehrlichs' home was Tscherbakowka where his brother, Gottfried lived. He also visited the other brothers on the East side of the Volga...Torgun, Strassburg and Blumenfeld.

Susana Ehrlick was born in Russia, August 24, 1839. She was married to John Nusz in January 1859.

They migrated to America in 1876 locating for a year in Marion county, then in 1877 came to the farm near Wodbine, where they have lived since.

There were ten children born to Mr. and Mrs. Nusz, eight of whom were born in Russia and two in America. Five of the children survive: J. C. of Harlingen, Texas; Theodore and D. D. of Abilene, Ben of Lincoln, Arkansas, and Solomon, at home. Solomon has been in constant care of his mother since her illness and his father's death in 1909.

Mrs. Nusz was converted when quite a young girl and united with the Mennonite or Baptist church.

After several weeks of illness, Mrs. Nusz passed to her reward Sept. 29th at the ripe old age of 88 years, one month and five days.

The funeral was held Sunday, Oct. 2nd at the M. E. church in Woodbine, conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. L. Torrence, and assisted by Rev. Brandes, who led in prayer, and Rev. Pauler who spoke in the German language. Burial was in the Woodbine cemetery.

Another of the pioneers has passed to her reward. It is to a great extent due to the efforts of such as mother Nusz, who trusted God, and toiled and saved and were concerned about their families that the present generation can enjoy the greater blessings of life, even luxury.

She has toiled, loved and prayed, and now her work on earth is done. She is resting from her cares and labors, until the resurrection morn, when she too shall rise again to be forever with her Lord. ***

Card of Thanks: The family and loved ones of Grandma Nusz wish to thank all who in any way showed their willingness to assist in any way during the illness, death and and burial of their mother. Also for the floral offerings.

acres, of which one hundred and ten acres are under cultivation. The family have a pleasant and agreeable household. The two children that have been born to our subject are John M., who married Blanche Whitney; and Benjamin, who married Mattie Speece. In politics, Mr. Stevens adheres to the party in which he was reared, and votes the Democratic ticket.

JACOB AND JOHN EHRLICH, proprietors of the Cottonwood Valley Mills at Marion, Kan., are the members of the firm doing business under the firm name of Ehrlich Bros. They are men of force and vim, and are making a great success of this plant.

John Ehrlich was born January 1, 1847, in the far-distant government of Saratow, on the Volga River, in far-off Russia, a place made familiar to American readers through the graphic pen of Kennan, and at the same place occurred the birth of the younger brother, John, December 25, 1853. There the family has lived for one hundred and fifteen years, and the old homestead is still in the possession of the family.

Three brothers came together to America, Jacob, John, and another, Karl, who is now a farmer and good citizen of Lehigh, Marion County. The two first-named knew what they wanted, and soon selected a good location, and in 1877, one year after locating here, the first mill was erected upon this site. This was at a cost of $7,000, and had a capacity of twenty barrels; three years later a fifteen-horse power engine was added, which raised the capacity to thirty-five barrels, and here the business was carried on and kept increasing until in 1884 it became necessary to tear the old mill down and erect a new.

By coming one and a-half miles down the creek, the firm increased the water power, the investment in water power alone costing about $1,000, and here they built a mill that cost them $20,000, including machinery. In December, 1884, the present immense mill was opened, and in 1886 the great elevator was erected with a capacity of twenty-five thousand bushels, at a cost of $3,500. The business has been carried on with such good judgment and wise management that it has been successful from the beginning. The present mill has a capacity of seventy-five barrels of flour and twenty-five of corn and rye, and its dimensions are 28x43, and it is two and one-half stories in height. The elevator is 32x43, and all of the latest improvements in machinery have been put in. Four men beside the proprietors are continually required to manage it. They feed four or five hundred cattle in connection with the mill, and they do a general merchant and exchange business.

The marriage of Jacob Ehrlich took place in September, 1866, to Miss Anna Ehrlich, of the same place of birth as himself, and the following children have been added to his family: Maria, Johannes (deceased), Anna, Jacob, David, Karl, Louisa, Eva and Kassia (twins), Johannah, Einike and Jonah.

The marriage of John Ehrlich was celebrated December 30, 1878, with Miss Lydia Ehrlich, who was an old acquaintance in Russia and a sister of his brother's wife. His family is as follows: Lydia, Asael, Constantine, Charley, David, Ferdinand, Maria and Anna. Jacob resides upon the old home place where the mill was first erected. Both brothers are members of the Brethren Church, and are men who are held in great esteem in their neighborhood. John and Jacob are Republicans, and believe in the principles of that body, although they take little part in politics.

PHILIP S. CARPENTER. Born among the hills of New York State, and knowing what it is to take off enough stone from an acre or two of ground to surround it with fence, our subject must have found it indeed a change to come to the rolling prairie of Kansas, where stone of any size commands a

NOTES ON THE EICHELBERGER FAMILY

The early history of the Eichelberger family in Germany is found in Historical Sketches of Philip Frederick Eichelberger from Ittlingen, Germany, by Abdiel Wist Eichelberger. In 1887, in answer to inquiries from Mr. A. W. Eichelberger, the vicar of the Evangelical Congregation at Ittlingen, Germany sent much information pertaining to the Eichelberger family. Itllingen is located near Sinsheim (Baden) which is about half way between Heilbronn and Heidelberg, Germany.

John Eichelberger, Sr. had at least one child, a son, John, Jr.

John Eichelberger, Jr., (born at Itllingen, Germany), married Marie Barbara _____.

Their Children

Anna Elizabeth	born March 31, 1684
child	born May 10, 1687
Philip Frederick	born April 17, 1693
Marie Barbara	born February 20, 1700
Anna Catharina	born October 30, 17__
Anna Margaretha	born March 6, 17__
John George	born April 16, 1704

John George Eichelberger, (born at Itllingen, Germany), married Juliana _____. Juliana's middle name may have been Catharina as in July 1727 a Juliana Catharina Eichelberger was a godmother at a baptism. In Pennsylvania German Pioneers by Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Volume I, is found the date when John George and Juliana arrived in America. They may have lived in a small village named "Sattelhof" before coming to America. They arrived at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on August 28, 1733. They came on the ship, "Hope", Daniel Reid, Master, from Rotterdam (The Netherlands) but last from Cowes (England). The ages for both were given as being twenty-nine years old so Juliana must have been born in about 1704 when John George was born. Their two eldest children were born in Ittlingen. George Michael was probably their son as he was married in Warwich Township where they lived. Eva Barbara's birthdate and baptismal record are found in the record of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Warwick Township. John George and Juliana lived at Warwick Township located in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Nothing more is known about them.

Vivian,

Thought I'd answer by e mail, since I have it on. I think you'll love the Ehrlich chart. I have a list of spouses alphabetized, if you want it to help sort them out, let me know.

I'll be glad to send our earlier newsletters. My cost is for copies and postage, and I think I have a full set up to May 1997. How will you bind them? Is that expensive? I do send 2 copies to ASHGR, so they can loan out the more recent ones–also send to Tabor College in Hillsboro, KS and a few others.

Glad to hear your gr. du. is interested in her history. Is she interested enough to attend some of the Wichita Convention in mid June? I plan to be there for the Village part from June 16 eve to abt Jun 19. Am hoping to meet some people there individually, if i can work it out.

Re. Nusz documentation. Faye Schantz got a passport on her Meier from Dr. Pleve for $61. I think she would contact Dr. Pleve for you, if you want to spend $61 on the possibility he has Nusz. She would need his name birth date, and the same for his family that was born in Russia, possible family residences and date he left to maybe find it. Pleve supposedly has done the research on passports for AHSGR. They will eventually make them available–in years probably. Pleve will do individual searches of his info. for the #61 I don't know if Faye can find out in advance if he has your name. If not, you might lose your $61. There is no refund, I don't think, but sometimes he finds something else of use, and will offer that instead.

Or he & RAGAS do searches for specific documents of a specific name for something like $20 a document. You could ask Faye to ask Pleve what would be his charge for searching for a marriage or birth or passport document on Johannes Nusz from Gololobovka, (German name Doennhof) a Lutheran crown colony founded in 21 Jul 1766 on the hill side, and they left from Dobrinka on that date you have. giving all his family data. She could see what he responds.

You could e mail Pleve yourself, but he doesn't always answer unless you send money, Since Faye has sent him money for our group, he is more likely to answer her sooner. I have e mailed him, and just gotten a late form type reply of no use. So Faye has agreed to do this for our group. i don't think there is another village of origin that looks likely. There are Nusz's in Dobrinka and Mueller in 1798, but I don't just where they all could have gone. Doennhof (a very common village name, you have to be sure to i.d. the right one) is certainly not out of range for a marriage for someone from Shcherbakovka.

I'll get the NLs and Ehrlich spouses list in the mail next week. Let me know what you think abt. the Ehrlich Chart.

Introduction and Notes to Spouses of Ehrlichs on Framily Tree Chart done in 1996-97

This alphabetical list of spouses includes only those of mariages listed on the Erhlich Family Tree Chart--108 of a total of about 400 names on the chart -- except where names or dates are enclosed in (parenthesis). In that case, the information comes from one of the sources listed below and coded by the number after the first name. First names in CAPITAL letters indicate the name used, where this in known. * indicates different information in the source from the Chart, where spelling or dates are concerned. Dates may vary because the Russians--and this chart-- used the old Julian calendar until 1917. In the West, we have used the Gregorian calendar which dropped 10 days from the Julian calendar in 1582. Thus, there may be a 10 to 13 day difference in some dates. For example, # 26. Johannes Ehrlich, my grandfather, is listed as being born 13 Dec 1853 on the Chart. He changed his birth date to coincide with the new calendar, and listed it as 25 Dec 1853.

There are multiple relationships on this chart. Marriages between cousins were not uncommon. For example, my grandmother, # 26 Lydia Ehrlich, and her two sisters, Anna Elisabeth and Catharina Elisabeth, all married Ehrlichs. Lydia and Anna married brothers, who are first cousins one generation removed. Catharina Elisabeth (Kate) married George Ehrlich, who is a third cousin. For a real challenge in identification, note # 24 & # 25, where two Johann Dietrich Ehrlichs married two Eva Margaretha Ehrlichs in the same year. The possibilities of confusing these two couples are numerous, to say the least. The necessity of having accurate dates on all names is obvious, but difficult to achieve.

Where only a year is listed on the Chart, it is taken from a census record. Not all those born in the village are listed on this chart. There can be errors of translation and transcription, and omissions. Where these are found, please send additions and corrections to the address below.

A xerox copy of the Ischerbakowka colony families record list of 1798 registering the family of Christoph Ehrlich

Saratov 15.09.1997

Dear Dennis Wade,

Ludmila and Igor Pleve send you warm greetings from Saratov.

We have prepared for you the genealogical investigation on the family of your ancestors Ehrlich from the Tscherbakowka colony.

The genealogy is based on all the archival documents known today: the first settlers' record lists , the families' record lists for various years of the 18th and the 19th centuries, revision tallies as well as church books. The people named by you are well traced in the above mentioned documents of the Tscherbakowka colony.

But the Ehrlichs lived in Tscherbakowka not from the moment of its foundation, so it's impossible to define where they had come from to Russia.We've carefully examined the first settlers' record lists of the Tscherbakowka colony of 1767, but, to our regret, haven't found them there.But it's perfectly true, that the Ehrlichs had settled in this colony before 1788, otherwise it would have been registered, what colony they had come from.

In the genealogical chart we've placed all the Ehrlichs who lived in Tscherbakowka.It can be assumed that Christoph Ehrlich,b.1746, and Friedrich Ehrlich,b.1753, were brothers, but we've got no documentary verification of it. That's why we've put them separately in the chart.

The cost of the genealogy amounts to 625$ +22$ for xeroxes and mailing.We know you've made a 250$ advance deposit.The rest of the sum is requested to be also sent to our account in California at Arthur Flegel.

If any questions arise, we'll be glad to answer them.

Best wishes from Igor and Ludmila Pleve.

the time of his death, on May 2, 1804, owned several good farms within six miles of Hanover, and a number of choice tracts of land in Franklin County. His remains were interred at Abbottstown. He had a family of nine children—two sons, John and Joseph, and seven daughters. Joseph, the great grandfather of our subject, was born February 26, 1773. In the year 1798, he became the owner of the tract of land purchased by his grandfather, Adam Bittinger, in 1753. He died July 26, 1804, at the early age of thirty two years, and left a widow and five sons, viz.: John, Joseph, Henry, Frederick and George. His second son Joseph, the grandfather of Dr. J. H. Bittinger, was born November 13, 1794, married Lydia Bear, of Hanover, in 1819, and died September 27, 1850, on the old homestead of Adam Bittinger, the immigrant. He left twelve children, viz.: William, now residing in Abbottstown; Henry, born 1821 and died 1879; Joseph, graduate of Pennsylvania College and of Andover Theological Seminary, became pastor of a Presbyterian Church in Cleveland, Ohio, and Pittsburgh, Penn., was a fine speaker, an elegant writer and a doctor of divinity; died in 1885, and his remains were interred at Hanover. The other children were Ellen, Edward (died in Chicago), Rebecca, John, Quiney (graduate of Dartmouth College and Andover Seminary, pastor of Congregational Church at Haverhill, N.H.), Daniel, Annie, Howard, Nicholas (now in Florida) and Charles Lewis, now in Florida. Dr. J. H. Bittinger, the subject of this sketch, was born in Berwick Township, February 3, 1852, and is a son of Henry Bittinger. For a time he attended Pennsylvania College, taught school in Illinois and in Pennsylvania. In 1871, while in the wholesale foreign and domestic fruit business with his uncles, George and Charles, in the city of Chicago, their entire establishment was burned by the disastrous fire that destroyed over $200,000,000 worth of property, and 7,450 buildings. Dr. Bittinger returned to Hanover in 1873, began to read medicine, entered the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia and graduated in 1878, began practicing in Hanover, where he soon prospered in his profession. After two and one-half years of successful practice he removed to Philadelphia, where he did a lucrative business. In 1882 he returned to Hanover, and the same year was married to Miss Clara E. Bucher. They have one child—Lida. Dr. Bittinger is an active practitioner, is well read, and thoroughly versed in his profession and now enjoys a large practice. He is a member of the State Medical Society, American Medical Association and the York County Medical Society.

CHARLES C. BOWMAN is a native of the city of "brotherly love," was born in 1831, and is a son of Charles and Sarah (Sultz) Bowman, of German descent. His father was born in the same city in 1800, and died in 1874; his mother died in 1864. When a mere boy he left Philadelphia and went to New York City, remained a short time and then went to Newark, N. J.; fourteen years of age found him at sea, which he sailed six years, and has traveled around the world from west to east once, and for a number of years he was in the employ of the United States government. In 1851 he came to Hanover and engaged in the manufacture of cigars, but at the end of one year he went to Newark, N. J., and there remained until 1864, when he returned to Hanover, and here has since resided. Mr. Bowman was married in 1852 to Miss Dorothea Grimes, a native of Germany. To this marriage have been born thirteen children. Politically Mr. Bowman is a Democrat. He is one of the substantial and successful business men of Hanover. He is a Mason and K. T. and a member of the I. O. O. F. and I. O. R. M., and Mr. and Mrs. Bowman are members of the Reformed Church. He is at present one of the building committee of the Trinity Reformed Church which is being erected in Hanover and was one of the founders of said church, which is nearly completed. He is closely connected with Hon. Daniel Fox, ex-mayor of Philadelphia, Penn.

HON. PHILIP S. BOWMAN, eldest of the seven children of John and Catharine (Stambaugh) Bowman, was born February 15, 1846, in Jackson Township, formerly Paradise Township, and is of German descent. The father was born March 29, 1822, in Heidelberg Township; the mother was born in Paradise Township. Our subject was reared a farmer, and educated at the common schools, and at the Manchester Academy, Carroll County, Md., and at the normal school at Millersville, Lancaster Co., Penn. For five years from 1863 he taught school. In 1871 he engaged in the grain and produce trade at Hanover, and two years later resumed farming. In politics he is a Democrat, and in 1869 was elected assessor of Heidelberg Township. In 1873 he was elected assistant assessor; in 1874, school director; in 1876, representative of York County, and in 1878 was re-elected in each of the two last cases by more than a party vote. In the legislature he took an active part in opposing the Pittsburgh Riot Bill, which was defeated. In 1881 he was elected secretary of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Paradise, York Co., Penn., of which company he is also a director. In 1885 he was elected justice of the peace, and for the past two years has also been engaged in surveying. In 1867 he joined the Odd Fellows, and in 1872 was made a Free Mason, being now W. M. of Patmos Lodge No. 348. He is also a member of Howell Chapter No. 199, and York Commandery No. 21. He was married, in 1867, to Miss Lydia E., daughter of Samuel and Julia Ann Keller, born September 23, 1846, in Heidelberg Township. Four children have blessed this union, viz.: Milton E., Martha E., Ira A. and Oscar R. Mr. and Mrs. Bowman are members of the Lutheran Church.

JOHN BUTT, a cigar manufacturer of Pennville, Penn Township, York County, was born December 25, 1825, in York County, and is the only child of John and Eva (Zeigler) Butt. His father was a hatter by trade, and followed the same until his death. Our subject was brought up a farmer, and received a common school education, most of which he acquired by himself, as he lost his father when an infant. Until his seventh year he remained with his mother. He then made his home with Daniel Diehl, with whom he remained until he became of age. Early he learned the trade of shoemaking, and followed it for fourteen years. November 4, 1848, he was married to Joanna Bankert, a daughter of Daniel Bankert, deceased. To them were born six children: Zepania, Matilda, Austin, deceased; Elaranda, deceased; Milton and an infant, deceased. In 1849 Mr. Butt removed to the place where he has since resided, and has carried on the manufacture of cigars for thirty years. He and wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Hanover. Mr. Butt takes great interest in educational matters, and is considered a liberal, public-spirited citizen. Politically he is a Republican.

CAPT. A. W. EICHELBERGER. The subject of this sketch is an honored representative of the Eichelberger family. The great-grandfather of our subject, Philip Frederick Eichelberger, son of John and Maria Barbara Eichelberger, who was born April 17, 1693, in Itlingen, near Sinzheim, then in the Grand Duchy of Baden, now in the Empire of Germany. He was married November 11, 1714, to Anna Barbara Doerners. On May 11, 1728, he received from the authorities of Itlingen a testimonial of his good character and honorable standing, the original of which is now in possession of Edwin S. Eichelberger, Esq., a great-great-grandson, residing in Frederick, Md. On the 22d of June, 1728, himself, wife and four children, together with thirty other Palatinates and their families, 100 in all, embarked in the good ship "Albany," and set sail from Rotterdam, Holland, for the land of their adoption. Lazarus Oxham was shipmaster, or captain, of this vessel, which landed September 4, of the same year, at Philadelphia. On September 13, 1743, he obtained a land warrant from the proprietaries of Pennsylvania for 175 acres of land in Manheim Township, Lancaster Co., Penn. Upon this tract he took his family, cleared and cultivated the land, built a house and prospered to such an extent that only two years later he obtained grants for 140 acres additional, located in Conestoga and Manheim Townships of the same county. He remained in Lancaster County until 1754, when, on April 28, 1761, he purchased a warrant of Conrad Low for 220 acres of land in Manheim Township, York Co., Penn. He died September 19, 1776, aged eighty-three years five months and two days. His remains now slumber in the historic old burying ground, about one mile north of Hanover. The children by his first wife were Martin, Frederick, Anna Margeret (married to Vincent Keefer), Barbara (married to Andrew Hoke) and Elizabeth (married to Jacob Smyser). His first four children, as above stated, were born in Germany. These children, after marriage, located in and around York. Martin, the eldest of the sons, was present at York when the town was laid out in 1741, and purchased Lot No. 120. He was one of the original members of the first Lutheran Church in York; was commissioned a court justice under King George III in 1760, the first year of his long reign, and also under constitution of 1776, being prominently identified with the early history of York, where he died in 1781 or 1782. The children of Martin were George, Frederick, Jacob, Bernard, Martin, Susanna (married to Daniel Barnitz) and Mary (married to William T. Coale). George and Jacob were prominent in collecting goods and money for the Revolutionary army. George was appointed quartermaster of the militia of York County in 1776. He was a member of the Provincial Convention, which was held at Philadelphia the 23d of January, 1776. He had been high sheriff of York under the king from 1768 to 1771. He died in York about the year 1781. Jacob was sheriff of York County, elected in 1804. He subsequently removed to Reisterstown, Md., where he died in 1832, aged eighty-nine years. Frederick, the second son of Martin, was a large land-holder. He lived in Bottstown, near York. His children were John, Thomas, Daniel, George, Bernard, William, Charles and Sarah. He died at his son's house, one and one-third miles west of York, in 1824, aged eighty-four years. Martin, the youngest son of Martin, during the Revolution, when less than eighteen, took a horse and rode to Boston, and joined Capt. Swope's company, which had left York before. He obtained a lieutenancy in Capt. Nichols' company, and on his transfer to the commissary department succeeded to the command of the company. He served with much credit during the war, and subsequently accompanied the expedition to Wyoming to repel the incursions of the Indians. He remained in the army until 1783. As a recognition of his services and exemplary character, he obtained the office of weighmaster at the port of Baltimore, which position he held for forty-five years. He died in that city October 2, 1840, in the eighty-second year of his age. Among his sons was Otho W. Eichelberger. He was one of the oldest merchants in Baltimore; was in business at No. 1 Howard Street for over fifty years. He died January 30, 1879, in the eightieth year of his age. Jesse, another son of Martin, was killed in Fort McHenry, at Baltimore, in 1814. Frederick Eichelberger, the second son of the immigrant, although born in Germany, soon imbibed the spirit of American patriotism. He lived near York, and was a justice during the time of the Revolution. The children by the second marriage of Philip Frederick Eichelberger were Adam, Leonard, Jacob (grandfather of our subject) and Lewis. Adam, the eldest, was a captain of a company of Associators of York County during the Revolution, and was also active in collecting money and supplies for the army. He was married to Magdalina Bechtel. Their children were Frederick, Michael, Samuel, Adam, Joseph, Susanna, Salome and Magdalina. He obtained possession of the homestead in 1766, which then contained 220 acres, including the mill place, which at that time was situated in Manheim but is now in Heidelberg Township, about three miles east of Hanover on the York road. The mill, which is in close proximity to the Hanover & York Railroad, is now owned by George Jacobs. In addition to the occupation of farmer, Adam was also a tavern-keeper. He was a prominent and influential citizen, and died in 1787, aged forty-eight years and seven months. The home place has been kept in the family up to the present time, and is now occupied by Charles Eichelberger, a great-grandson. Leonard, the second son of Philip Frederick Eichelberger, by the second wife, was a farmer. He was married to Elizabeth Smyser, and had four sons: Jacob, Frederick, George and John; and six daughters: Mary, married to Barney Welty; Sarah, to Frederick Welty; Susan, to Lewis Shearer; Lydia, to Daniel Bailey, and Elizabeth, to H. Richenbaugh. Jacob lived in York, was sheriff of York County, elected a member of the legislature in 1807 and a justice in 1829. He had three daughters: Eliza, married to Dr. George L. Shearer, of Dillsburg; Maria, to James McCosh, and Catherine, to Enoch Young. Frederick was a farmer, and lived near Dillsburg until the last year of his life, when he moved to Frederick City, Md. He married Catherine Baker; was a member of the legislature in 1815–16–17, and of the senate in 1819. He had no children, and died in 1836. George, the third son of Leonard, removed to Frederick County, Md., and was register of wills for thirteen years. He married Sarah Grayson. His sons were Niles, Grayson, Hervy and Allen. Grayson was secretary of State under Gov. Grayson, and was also a member of the senate of Maryland. Edwin, son of Grayson and great-great-grandson of the immigrant, is now a lawyer in Frederick City, Md. John, the fourth son of Leonard, was a farmer and justice. He lived in York County, and was a member of the legislature in 1835. His children were John and Alexander. Jacob, the third son of the second wife of the immigrant, resided in the town of Hanover. He was engaged in farming and keeping tavern. He was married to Anna Maria Reiniker. He died in 1811. His remains were first interred in St. Matthew's Lutheran graveyard, and were afterward removed to Mt. Olivet Cemetery. He left but one son, Jacob, the father of our subject, who became quite prominent in the borough of Hanover for a great many years. He was a merchant and farmer, and kept a public house which was long known as the "stage office," now the "Central Hotel." He was the first president of the Maryland Line Turnpike Company, and was active in organizing the Hanover Savings Bank, of which he became president in 1835, and served with great acceptance for a number of years. He died in 1843. He was first married to Elizabeth Nace. By this marriage he had three daughters: Louisa, married to George Trone; Maria, to Jacob Young, and Elizabeth, to Michael Barnitz. In the year 1806 he married Miss Maria Wirt, daughter of Christian Wirt, of Hanover. By this marriage he had eight children: Matthew, who now resides in Gettysburg; Jacob, who died in the State of Alabama in 1881; Henry, a farmer, residing in Hanover; Catherine Maria, married to S. A. McCosh, died in Georgia in 1868; Capt. A. W.; Rufus, president of the Hanover Saving Fund Society; Amanda, married to A. F. Gitt, of New Oxford, and died in 1871; and Amelia, the youngest, who is now living with her brothers in Hanover. Lewis, the fourth son of Frederick, lived in Adams County, Penn. He left one son, Adam, and three daughters, all of whom are now dead. Capt. A. W. Eichelberger was born in Hanover December 6, 1819. His father gave him the advantage of the best schools the town afforded. He remained at home until May, 1838, when he was apprenticed to learn the carpenter's trade with Conrad Moul, at Westminster, Md., where he remained three years and returned to Hanover. In 1843 he traveled overland to the State of Georgia to visit his elder brother, Jacob. Whilst there he arranged for the shipment of carriages and damask coverlets to that State, which business he continued for several years, and subsequently purchased, jointly with his brother, the Wehadkee Flour and Sawmills in the State of Alabama, and has since held his interest in the same, except during the civil war, when the property was confiscated by the Confederate government, and returned to him after the war. From 1845 to 1852 he spent his winters in the South, looking after his interests there, and his summers in Hanover, devoting his time to farming his own and his mother's land, to making purchases for shipment South, and in drilling an infantry company of citizen soldiers, called the "United Blues," and afterward a cavalry company known as the "Fourth Dragoons." As a military officer he was a universal favorite. In his early life, was a devoted Whig, and took an active part in the political campaigns of 1844 and 1852, and took the stump as a speaker on those occasions. He is now a Republican. He has never married. In the year 1872 he, together with three other public-spirited citizens, presented the beautiful fountain which now adorns the Centre Square of Hanover, and adds so much to the attractions of the town. He is a regular attendant at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, and a liberal contributor to all objects of benevolence and charity; takes a lively interest in the public welfare of his native town, and is universally popular among his neighbors and fellow citizens. In 1853, on account of his administrative and executive abilities, he was at the age of thirty-four elected president of the Hanover Branch Railroad Company, and still holds the same position, being in term of continuous service the oldest railroad president in the United States. This road was afterward, through his influence, consolidated with the Gettysburg Railroad. He is now president of the Baltimore & Hanover, Bachman Valley, Berlin Branch and Baltimore & Harrisburg Railroad Companies, all of which are described in another part of this work. In his industrious career in the railroad business, he has constantly kept in view the material interests of his native town and surrounding country, and the prosperity of the roads over which he presides. The town of Hanover will long remember him for his industry, liberality and devoted interest in her material welfare.

D. B. GROVE, M. D., is a son of Jacob and Louisa C. (Shriver) Grove. His grandfather, George Grove, was a wagon-maker in Hanover. His maternal grandfather, Henry Shriver, resided in Littlestown, Adams County. Dr. Grove was born in Hanover May 29, 1860, and was educated in the public and private schools of his native town. He then entered a drug store in Baltimore as a clerk, but on account of declining health, for the time, retired from that position and returned to his home. After recuperating his health his attention was directed to homœopathy. Being a thorough convert to that mode of medical treatment he began to study medicine, and in 1881 entered the Homœopathic Medical College of New York City, and was graduated in 1883. While in that institution he was elected guiz-master in medical jurisprudence, an honor conferred upon him by his fellow students. He joined the American Society of Homœopathy in 1884, and attended its sessions that year at Deer Park, Md. In 1885 he was elected surgeon of the Hanover Junction, Hanover & Gettysburg and Hanover & Baltimore Railroads. the time of his death, on May 2, 1804, owned several good farms within six miles of Hanover, and a number of choice tracts of land in Franklin County. His remains were interred at Abbottstown. He had a family of nine children—two sons, John and Joseph, and seven daughters. Joseph, the great grandfather of our subject, was born February 26, 1773. In the year 1798, he became the owner of the tract of land purchased by his grandfather, Adam Bittinger, in 1753. He died July 26, 1804, at the early age of thirty two years, and left a widow and five sons, viz.: John, Joseph, Henry, Frederick and George. His second son Joseph, the grandfather of Dr. J. H. Bittinger, was born November 13, 1794, married Lydia Bear, of Hanover, in 1819, and died September 27, 1850, on the old homestead of Adam Bittinger, the immigrant. He left twelve children, viz.: William, now residing in Abbottstown; Henry, born 1821 and died 1879; Joseph, graduate of Pennsylvania College and of Andover Theological Seminary, became pastor of a Presbyterian Church in Cleveland, Ohio, and Pittsburgh, Penn., was a fine speaker, an elegant writer and a doctor of divinity; died in 1885, and his remains were interred at Hanover. For a time he attended Pennsylvania College, taught school in Illinois and in Pennsylvania. In 1871, while in the wholesale foreign and domestic fruit business with his uncles, George and Charles, in the city of Chicago, their entire establishment was burned by the disastrous fire that destroyed over $200,000,000 worth of property, and 7,450 buildings. Dr. Bittinger returned to Hanover in 1873, began to read medicine, entered the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia and graduated in 1878, began practicing in Hanover, where he soon prospered in his profession. After two and one-half years of successful practice he removed to Philadelphia, where he did a lucrative business. In 1882 he returned to Hanover, and the same year was married to Miss Clara E. Bucher. They have one child—Lida. Dr. Bittinger is an active practitioner, is well read, and thoroughly versed in his profession and now enjoys a large practice. When a mere boy he left Philadelphia and went to New York City, remained a short time and then went to Newark, N. J.; fourteen years of age found him at sea, which he sailed six years, and has traveled around the world from west to east once, and for a number of years he was in the employ of the United States government. In 1885 he was elected justice of the peace, and for the past two years has also been engaged in surveying. In 1867 he joined the Odd Fellows, and in 1872 was made a Free Mason, being now W. M. of Patmos Lodge No. 348. He is also a member of Howell Chapter No. 199, and York Commandery No. 21. Until his seventh year he remained with his mother. He then made his home with Daniel Diehl, with whom he remained until he became of age. Early he learned the trade of shoemaking, and followed it for fourteen years. November 4, 1848, he was married to Joanna Bankert, a daughter of Daniel Bankert, deceased. To them were born six children: Zepania, Matilda, Austin, deceased; Elaranda, deceased; Milton and an infant, deceased. In 1849 Mr. Butt removed to the place where he has since resided, and has carried on the manufacture of cigars for thirty years. He and wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Hanover. Mr. Butt takes great interest in educational matters, and is considered a liberal, public-spirited citizen. Politically he is a Republican.

CAPT. A. W. EICHELBERGER. The subject of this sketch is an honored representative of the Eichelberger family. The great-grandfather of our subject, Philip Frederick Eichelberger, son of John and Maria Barbara Eichelberger, who was born April 17, 1693, in Itlingen, near Singheim, then in the Grand Duchy of Baden, now in the Empire of Germany. He was married November 11, 1714, to Anna Barbara Doerners. On May 11, 1728, he received from the authorities of Itlingen a testimonial of his good character and honorable standing, the original of which is now in possession of Edwin S. Eichelberger, Esq., a great-great-grandson, residing in Frederick, Md. On the 22d of June, 1728, himself, wife and four children, together with thirty other Palatinates and their families, 100 in all, embarked in the good ship "Albany," and set sail from Rotterdam, Holland, for the land of their adoption. Lazarus Oxham was shipmaster, or captain, of this vessel, which landed September 4, of the same year, at Philadelphia. On September 13, 1743, he obtained a land warrant from the proprietaries of Pennsylvania for 175 acres of land in Manheim Township, Lancaster Co., Penn. Upon this tract he took his family, cleared and cultivated the land; built a house and prospered to such an extent that only two years later he obtained grants for 140 acres additional, located in Conestoga and Manheim Townships of the same county. He remained in Lancaster County until 1754, when, on April 28, 1761, he purchased a warrant of Conrad Low for 220 acres of land in Manheim Township, York Co., Penn. He died September 19, 1776, aged eighty-three years five months and two days. His remains now slumber in the historic old burying ground, about one mile north of Hanover. The children by his first wife were Martin, Frederick, Anna Margeret (married to Vincent Keefer), Barbara (married to Andrew Hoke) and Elizabeth (married to Jacob Smyser). His first four children, as above stated, were born in Germany. These children, after marriage, located in and around York. Martin, the eldest of the sons, was present at York when the town was laid out in 1741, and purchased Lot No. 120. He was one of the original members of the first Lutheran Church in York; was commissioned a court justice under King George III in 1760, the first year of his long reign, and also under constitution of 1776, being prominently identified with the early history of York, where he died in 1781 or 1782. The children of Martin were George, Frederick, Jacob, Bernard, Martin, Susanna (married to Daniel Barnitz) and Mary (married to William T. Coale). George and Jacob were prominent in collecting goods and money for the Revolutionary army. George was appointed quartermaster of the militia of York County in 1776. He was a member of the Provincial Convention, which was held at Philadelphia the 23d of January, 1776. He had been high sheriff of York under the king from 1768 to 1771. He died in York about the year 1781. Jacob was sheriff of York County, elected in 1804. He subsequently removed to Reisterstown, Md., where he died in 1832, aged eighty-nine years. Frederick, the second son of Martin, was a large land-holder. He lived in Bottstown, near York. His children were John, Thomas, Daniel, George, Bernard, William, Charles and Sarah. He died at his son's house, one and one-third miles west of York, in 1824, aged eighty-four years. Martin, the youngest son of Martin, during the Revolution, when less than eighteen, took a horse and rode to Boston, and joined Capt. Swope's company, which had left York before. He obtained a lieutenancy in Capt. Nichols' company, and on his transfer to the commissary department succeeded to the command of the company. He served with much credit during the war, and subsequently accompanied the expedition to Wyoming to repel the incursions of the Indians. He remained in the army until 1783. As a recognition of his services and exemplary character, he obtained the office of weighmaster at the port of Baltimore, which position he held for forty-five years. He died in that city October 2, 1840, in the eighty-second year of his age. Among his sons was Otho W. Eichelberger. He was one of the oldest merchants in Baltimore; was in business at No. 1 Howard Street for over fifty years. He died January 30, 1879, in the eightieth year of his age. Jesse, another son of Martin, was killed in Fort McHenry, at Baltimore, in 1814. Frederick Eichelberger, the second son of the immigrant, although born in Germany, soon imbibed the spirit of American patriotism. He lived near York, and was a justice during the time of the Revolution. The children by the second marriage of Philip Frederick Eichelberger were Adam, Leonard, Jacob (grandfather of our subject) and Lewis. Adam, the eldest, was a captain of a company of Associators of York County during the Revolution, and was also active in collecting money and supplies for the army. He was married to Magdalina Bechtel. Their children were Frederick, Michael, Samuel, Adam, Joseph, Susanna, Salome and Magdalina. He obtained possession of the homestead in 1766, which then contained 220 acres, including the mill place, which at that time was situated in Manheim but is now in Heidelberg Township, about three miles east of Hanover on the York road. The mill, which is in close proximity to the Hanover & York Railroad, is now owned by George Jacobs. In addition to the occupation of farmer, Adam was also a tavern-keeper. He was a prominent and influential citizen, and died in 1787, aged forty-eight years and seven months. The home place has been kept in the family up to the present time, and is now occupied by Charles Eichelberger, a great-grandson. Leonard, the second son of Philip Frederick Eichelberger, by the second wife, was a farmer. He was married to Elizabeth Smyser, and had four sons: Jacob, Frederick, George and John; and six daughters: Mary, married to Barney Welty; Sarah, to Frederick Welty; Susan, to Lewis Shearer; Lydia, to Daniel Bailey, and Elizabeth, to H. Richenbaugh. Jacob lived in York, was sheriff of York County, elected a member of the legislature in 1807 and a justice in 1829. He had three daughters: Eliza, married to Dr. George L. Shearer, of Dillsburg; Maria, to James McCosh, and Catherine, to Enoch Young. Frederick was a farmer, and lived near Dillsburg until the last year of his life, when he moved to Frederick City, Md. He married Catherine Baker; was a member of the legislature in 1815–16–17, and of the senate in 1819. He had no children, and died in 1836. George, the third son of Leonard, removed to Frederick County, Md., and was register of wills for thirteen years. He married Sarah Grayson. His sons were Niles, Grayson, Hervy and Allen. Grayson was secretary of State under Gov. Grayson, and was also a member of the senate of Maryland. Edwin, son of Grayson and great-great-grandson of the immigrant, is now a lawyer in Frederick City, Md. John, the fourth son of Leonard, was a farmer and justice. He lived in York County, and was a member of the legislature in 1825. His children were John and Alexander. Jacob, the third son of the second wife of the immigrant, resided in the town of Hanover. He was engaged in farming and keeping tavern. He was married to Anna Maria Reiniker. He died in 1811. His remains were first interred in St. Matthew's Lutheran graveyard, and were afterward removed to Mt. Olivet Cemetery. He left but one son, Jacob, the father of our subject, who became quite prominent in the borough of Hanover for a great many years. He was a merchant and farmer, and kept a public house which was long known as the "stage office," now the "Central Hotel." He was the first president of the Maryland Line Turnpike Company, and was active in organizing the Hanover Savings Bank, of which he became president in 1835, and served with great acceptance for a number of years. He died in 1843. He was first married to Elizabeth Nace. By this marriage he had three daughters: Louisa, mar-

COL. JAMES THOMPSON OF THE REVOLUTION.

The Thompson family, and some branches of other families in Lancaster county, grafted into it, were quite remarkable. Near the village of Smyrna, in Sadsbury township, Lancaster county, the farm now owned by John W. Thompson, Col. James Thompson owned and resided. He was born in February, 1745. In the year 1771 or 1773 he married Lydia Bailey (1750–1806), daughter of Robert Bailey, who owned a farm and resided near the Thompsons.

The Thompson brothers, of whom there were several, and the sons, and sons-in-law of Robert Bailey, Esq., the father of Mrs. Thompson, took an active and prominent part in the Revolutionary war, several of them were wounded in battle and maimed for life—all rose to the position of a line or field officer. Col. James Thompson moved to the southeastern corner of York county at the commencement of the war. On the 9th day of August, 1777, he appeared before his brother, Andrew Thompson, Esq., who was one of the justices of the Court of Common Pleas of York county, and took the oath of "allegiance and fidelity," as directed by the act of General Assembly, passed June 13, 1777.

On the 15th day of September, 1777, the Supreme Executive Council commissioned James Thompson colonel of First battalion of the York county militia. It was signed by President Wharton and Timothy Matlock, secretary. Colonel Thompson had been in the service prior to this date as a line officer, and his promotion to a colonelcy was for gallant service. The following certificate throws some light upon his military career:

"These are to certify that on the 16th day of September, 1777, Colonel James Thompson, then in the service under my command, received a bad wound in an action with the enemy near the White Horse, that I had him carried from the field on my own horse, but thinking delay dangerous, gave him orders to impress horses to carry him to some place of safety.

JAMES POTTER,
"Brigadier General of Militia.

"Philadelphia, March 10, 1786."

Colonel Thompson was permanently disabled from the effects of the wound he received at the White Horse, when Washington was advancing with his army from the Brandywine to Germantown. For this disability he received a pension. He returned to his home in York county where he rendered valuable aid in the civil service, on various committees and in purchasing supplies for the army.

After a very bitter and violent political contest he was returned as councillor for York county in the beginning of February, 1779. On the 11th day of February, 1779, John Orr, Esq., and others filed a protest to Council against the return of Colonel Thompson. General Ewing, who was then a member of Council and was a candidate at this election, withdrew from his seat in the Council while the case was being considered. George Eichelberger, Benjamin Paden, Esq., and a number of other witnesses were heard in the matter. Colonel Thompson was seated. The Council censured the sheriff and some of the participants at the election for their misconduct. Colonel Thompson returned but fifty-five (55) miles as the distance traveled from his house to Philadelphia. This would locate his residence in the extreme southeastern corner of York county. His route of travel must have been in nearly a straight line. Whether he traveled any greater distance or not, he probably only charged for the shortest route.

At the close of the Revolution he returned to Sadsbury township, Lancaster county, and in connection with his brother-in-law, Col. John Steele, purchased large tracts of land upon both sides of Octoraro creek, in Sadsbury township and West Fallowfield township, Chester county, where the village of Steelville (named after Colonel Steele) is now located. They built a grist mill and a paper mill. Both took up their residence on the Chester county side of the creek.

In 1796 Colonel Thompson purchased 246 acres of land in Sadsbury from David Longhead, who was then living in Kentucky. In 1797 he sold 133 acres, being part of the farm, to James Rea, who was a silversmith (specimens of whose handy work are now in possession of the writer), and is now owned by William F. Rea, one of his descendants. Colonel Thompson, although always suffering from the wound he received at the White Horse, was a very active business man, and a large landholder, and he gave much of his leisure time to agricultural pursuits. His losses in the paper and milling business were heavy, and at the time of his death, on October 3, 1807, his estate was very much embarrassed. His wife, Lydia, died December 1, 1806. Both were buried at Middle Octoraro church (Presbyterian), in Bart township, which is located near one of the branches of the Octoraro, a little west of the Green Tree Tavern. I am not certain whether Colonel Thompson and his wife died upon his farm at Steelville or the one now owned by the Maxwells or Reas in Sadsbury, being part of the Longhead farm. Colonel Thompson left several children, one of whom was Andrew, who was commissioned captain in First company of Ninety-seventh regiment, First brigade, Third division of militia, of Chester and Delaware counties, by Governor Mc-

The justice of the peace goes on to say that she exhibited before him this pension certificate numbered 1,150, 10,920, 8,835, and beariug date of tenth June, 1850. I have the following obituary cut from a Gettysburg paper: "Died, on Thursday night last (June 2, 1831), William Miller, Esq., of the vicinity of this borough, in the 77th year of his age. The deceased took an active part in the Revolutionary struggle, and for many years represented this county in the Legisture of Pennsylvania."

[William Miller was ensign in Captain Samuel Hay's company, 6th Battalion of the Line, Col. Irvine, com. Jan. 9, 1776. First Lieut., 7th Penna., prom. March 20, 1777. Capt. Lieut., same Regt., prom. Feb. 2, 1778. Captain, same Regt., prom. April 17, 1779; retired, Jan. 1, 1781.]

IV. Rev. William Paxton, D. D., born April 1, 1760; died Oct. 19, 1841. Of this man Dr. David McConaughy says in Sprague's Annals of the American Pulpit, Vol. III, page 554: "His life was, however, somewhat identified with the struggles of our country for her independence. He served in two companies at different times during the Revolutionary war, in one of which he was present and participated in the battle of Trenton." His home was in Bart township, Lancaster county, Pa,, at the time of the Revolution. Probably a private, as he must have been very young.

[Rev. William Paxton was probably out with the Associators, as stated, but there are no rolls of the men extant for many of the companies. There was a John Paxton captain of an Associated company, Sept. 11, 1776; also, 2d Lanc. Batt., in 1777.]

V. Joseph Stevenson lived on a farm in Letterkenny township, Franklin county, Pa. I think he was in the militia under Col. Samuel Culbertson.

[Joseph Stevenson was First Lieutenant of the Eighth Company, Sixth Battalion, Cumberland County Associators, Col. Samuel Culbertson, com. July 31, 1777. First Lieutenant Eighth Company, Sixth Battalion, May 14, 1778.]

THE KURTZ FAMILY.

[This family, so intimately connected with the biographical history of Central Pennsylvania, as also of Maryland, are deserving of fuller mention than we can give at present—but at some future date propose alluding to them. JOSEPH COGLEY.—On Wednesday, December 8, 1802, Joseph Cogley, one of the earliest schoolmasters in the borough, died in Harrisburg. The Oracle of Dauphin, in noticing his death says: "In which line [a respectable schoolmaster] he was eminently useful—in his intercourse with mankind strictly honest, and in his friendship sincere. In his death will be experienced the loss of an affectionate husband, a kind father, a sincere friend, and a truly virtuous and useful citizen. The several schoolmasters within this borough, and their pupils, together with those of the departed, formed in mournful procession, and as a mark of respect justly due to the memory of their departed brother and teacher, attended his remains to the silent mansions of the grave." Mr. Cogley's widow, Margaret Cogley, with his intimate friend, John Downey, Esq., administered on his estate.

ZIMMERMAN.—Frederick Zimmerman was an early settler in Lancaster, now Lebanon county. His farm was located on the Colebrook road two and a half miles from the town of Lebanon. He died in 1793, having had issue:

i. John, m. Catharine Fisher, daughter of Peter Fisher.
ii. Catharine, m. Isaac Blystone.
iii. Margaret, m. Peter Eichelberger.
iv. Elizabeth, m. Abraham Blystone.

Several Eberly families moved to Virginia. One family is presently affiliated with the Old Order Mennonite sect in Rockingham County; others are scattered throughout the Valley and have become more assimilated into the total culture of the region.

Eichenberg

Peter Eichenberg was the progenitor of the Ikenberry or Eikenberry family in America. The name, originally a place name (Oak Hill), was spelled variously Eychenberg, Icanberry, and the Swiss form Eichenberger. A family burial ground has five grave markers, all of the same family, with five different spellings.[56]

Peter was baptized into the Dunkard church at Lancaster, Pennsylvania, in 1752, where he served as a Bishop until 1790 when he migrated to Virginia with other Brethren families who were seeking desirable land at a reasonable price.

The other migrants were John Brown, Daniel Barnhart, Henry Landis, Jacob Miller and William Smith. They continued through the Shenandoah Valley to an area near Roanoke. Their families intermarried, creating an inextricably intertwined genealogy.

A congregation of Brethren was formed, and worship services were held in barns and homes until the church was built. A considerable amount of Evangelical work was done by Miller and Smith, riding horseback to mountain outposts; Miller preached in German and Smith in English. A sizeable Dunkard settlement was developed.

Some of these settlers and their descendants migrated to the mid-west, where a large number can be traced today.

A family Bible containing the family records of Henry, son of Peter, has been preserved. "The Bible itself bears the Christofer Sauer imprint of the rare 1776 edition. The unbound sheets of this edition were stored in the attic of the Germantown Church of the Brethren at the time of the Battle of Germantown and were used by the British cavalry to bed their horses. After the battle Sauer salvaged enough sheets to bind up a few copies, but the book was never sold commercially."[57] of the Suters in the Shenandoah Valley, settled near Dayton. He married Anna Heatwole in 1828 and died August 31, 1873. He was a cabinetmaker, as were five generations of his descendants. One of Daniel's sons, Emanuel, operated a pottery called the "New Erection Pottery" from 1865-1890, when it was moved to Harrisonburg. Many members of the Suter family belong to the Mennonite church.

Wampler

John Wampler, the first of the family to move to Virginia, was born in Pennsylvania in 1768. He married Magdalena Garber and with their ten children moved to Beaver Dam, Maryland, where they stayed for ten years and where he was active in the Dunker chruch.

In Rockingham County the Wamplers settled in Long Meadows, about halfway between Broadway and Timberville and "in those early days before the Brethren in the Shenandoah Valley had a church house, the John Wampler home was the scene of many a preaching service, council meeting, love feast and other gatherings of the Brethren.[80]

Wenger

The Wengers, one of the prominent Mennonite families in Rockingham County, originated from Switzerland, and later migrated to the Palatinate. Christian Wenger, the progenitor of the family, arrived in Philadelphia in 1727 and settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He and his wife, Eva Grabiel, had 11 children, and two of the sons, Joseph and Henry, moved to Rockingham County around 1785. Joseph settled six miles north of Harrisonburg, near Edom, where he fathered eighteen children; 13 with his first wife and five with his second wife. He is buried in the Lindale Mennonite church cemetery.

Henry settled four miles south of Harrisonburg near Dayton.[81] One of his sons, Benjamin Wenger, was for many years a Mennonite minister, preaching in the German language. Many members of the family have been prominent in the Mennonite church. One,

Zirkle

Ludwig Sirkel (Zirkle is the name now used in the Valley) came from Germany and settled in Pennsylvania about the year 1725.[83] There he brought up his five sons and two daughters. He and his sons moved to the Valley between 1760 and 1765 and settled near New Market. Two of his sons, Michael and Andrew, settled at Holman's Creek near Forestville and assisted in organizing Solomon's Church. George Adam, the founder of the River Branch of the family, settled on the North Fork of the Shenandoah and joined Pine Church in 1790. Lewis and Peter settled on Smith Creek, southeast of New Market; Peter later moved to the headwaters of the James River.

Other Early Settlers

Records indicate many other Pennsylvania Germans migrated to the Shenandoah Valley. Deed books of Orange, Augusta and Frederick Counties indicate purchases of land before 1750 by Heinrich Ayler, Josiah Ballinger, Jacob Burner, Jacob Christman, Christopher Comber, Jacob Dye, Benjamin Frye, John Hockman, Daniel Holman, Christian Harnish, Henry Gnochnauer, John Kountz, Philip Long, Ephraim Love, Christian Niswanger, Valentine Pence, Henry Pfifer, John Prupecker (Brubaker), John Painter, Peter Ruffner, Christian Redlicksberger, Ludwick Stone, Mathias Selser, Henry Sowter, and Peter Scholl.

The almost complete possession of many sections of the Valley by German settlers is reflected in the local names given to neighborhoods in the several counties. These are names given post offices and locations on early maps:

Avis, Clines Mills, Kiracofe, Koiners Store, Molers, Sangerville, Snyder, Stover, Swoope, and Vanleer in Augusta County; Herskell, Hinckle, Kernstown, Neffstown, Rosenberger, Siter, Shockeysville and Stephens City in Frederick County; Hamburg, Koontz,

Houston, Texas
September 26, 1972

Dear Mrs. Kegley:

Well, it's been a long time since I've had any time for research, but now, I'm back.

My Daughter-in-law passed away Mar. 29, 1972 - 15 years, to the day after her husband, our son. Both had cancer. She had 11 operations during the year she was in the hospital, but it was impossible to control the spreading of the malignancy. She was a very special person, Their only child, my granddaughter, Diane, is married and lives here and has two small adopted children. She has had a tragic life, but has faced it all with Christian courage. I am grateful that we are close friends in spite of the generation gap. We have faced so many things together.

My Christley Vaught and Samuel Crain lines have been approved, and I have recently sent in the John Phillippi line. These for DAR. Then I have two Huguenot lines complete, Rousseau and Phillippi. I have not joined that Society yet. I cannot afford much more time, but the Huguenots only meet 3 or 4 times a year.

Now I have come to the Eichelberger line. I always thought Maria Eva Barbara was a daughter of John Frederick Eichelberger, who married Anna Maria Kintz, one reason being the "Maria" being carried down. Then you sent material which indicated different parentage. Also, a friend, Mrs. McCormick, fron Indiana, sent similar information. So now, I am thoroughly confused. There is a patriot, John Phillippi, (DAR P E) who married "Julianna Ream", which makes it worse. So I'm just bundling up everything I have on that line and sending i to you. I wish you would look it over and see what you make of it. I haven't been able to find anything further at the Library here. You might be able to suggest something for me to do.

John Frederick E. who married Anna Maria K. was born (1722) almost a generation later than John George (1704) who married Julianna (Ream?)

When you return these papers (they are my only copies), let me know what I owe you and I'll send a check. Still working on other lines and may be calling on you again.

Hope you and your family are well.

Sincerely,

Dear Vivian,

I have put off writing to you, just waiting for a slowed, quiet time, that I could really tell you how much I have appreciated all the material and help you have given to me. Seems like these times just don't happen. But I do want you to know that I'm awed with every letter you send and all I can say is "Thank You so much."

If I make a nuiance of myself, it's really your fault. The bug really bit me when I saw the picture you had sent Maxine of little Wm. Washington and Amanda Jane. I kept their picture laying beside me on the divan and would talk to them, saying, "I'm going to find out about you." And it just gets worse!

More than anything, I would like to send you some help. I talk this to my husband, Pat, so much, that when I got the obituary on John Pafford, that I am sending, Pat said, "Now you have something to send Vivian."

You've been a true cousin. The only one I'v known, except two of my mothers' sisters' girls.

I do have a little info, that you probably already have, but....

M25 Christopher Groffort (Crawfort) and wife Mary of Lancaster borough releases enfeoffed, to Peter Grafford of Lan. borough 1/2 lot, west side Queen St., Lanc. borough, So. side Chesnut St., by lot now in tenure of Christian Voght George Tedlo and wife Dorethea and Christian Free 23 Oct 1751 Granted to Christopher Graffort 3 July 1765 Grantors affirmed on date written.

K25 Great Ridenhouse of Lancaster borough mortage to Garet Brenner of Lan. Co. F40 S. Side Orange St. Lancaster borough, NL (now or late) Barnard Hubley, late of Valentine Crook, Dec 16 Aug. 1763 Wit (wife or witness: Christian Voght, J (Justice) 21 18 Nov 1763

The Ridenhouse of Lan. was a large paper mill. Looks as if C. Voght was some kind of official (you probably know what a justice was at that time). The (F) was the money sign that I still don't know what it means. Pounds??

I am sending the following list since there is a chance that this could be our George Eichelberger. First, I know for sure that Thomas Copenhavor (Koppenhaffer) was the father of Fredrick who m. Eve Phill. Thomas came from what is now Myerstown that is app. ten miles from the still present Strouchsburg, Pa. A Michael Neff signed John Phill. will. Andrew Wolf could have been the first of the Wolf (Wolfe-Wohlford) in Wythe Co. Mary Cormany (Marvin's wife) was a Wolford and said the first spelling was Wolf. Of course, George Eich. was witness to the 1811 will of Christian Voght, Sr., but they probably had moved to Lan. Co. before. Anyway, we can keep ours eyes open in Berks Co., also.

I take it that you do have Christ. Voght, Sr.s will?

Found a will for Wm. Hutton, 1825, Lan. Co., but except for his, there seems to be no other family names. They were Reuben, Samuel, mary, Phebe, Benjamin and Susan. Wife,Sarah.

All for now. Later,

NOTES ON THE EICHELBERGER FAMILY

The early history of the Eichelberger family in Germany is found in Historical Sketches of Philip Frederick Eichelberger from Ittlingen, Germany, by Abdiel Wist Eichelberger. In 1887, in answer to inquiries from Mr. A. W. Eichelberger, the vicar of the Evangelical Congregation at Ittlingen, Germany sent much information pertaining to the Eichelberger family. Itllingen is located near Sinsheim (Baden) which is about half way between Heilbronn and Heidelberg, Germany.

John Eichelberger, Sr. had at least one child, a son, John, Jr.

John Eichelberger, Jr., (born at Itllingen, Germany), married Marie Barbara _____.

Their Children

Anna Elizabeth	born March 31, 1684
child	born May 10, 1687
Philip Frederick	born April 17, 1693 - 11-11-1714
Marie Barbara	born February 20, 1700
Anna Catharina	born October 30, 17__
Anna Margaretha	born March 6, 17__
John George	born April 16, 1704 -

John George Eichelberger, (born at Itllingen, Germany), married Juliana _____. Juliana's middle name may have been Catharina as in July 1727 a Juliana Catharina Eichelberger was a godmother at a baptism. In Pennsylvania German Pioneers by Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Volume I, is found the date when John George and Juliana arrived in America. They may have lived in a small village named "Sattelhof" before coming to America. They arrived at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on August 28, 1733. They came on the ship, "Hope", Daniel Reid, Master, from Rotterdam (The Netherlands) but last from Cowes (England). The ages for both were given as being twenty-nine years old so Juliana must have been born in about 1704 when John George was born. Their two eldest children were born in Ittlingen. George Michael was probably their son as he was married in Warwich Township where they lived. Eva Barbara's birthdate and baptismal record are found in the record of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Warwick Township. John George and Juliana lived at Warwick Township located in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Nothing more is known about them.

Their Children (incomplete)

John Hieronymus	born June 21, 1728
Christian Louis	born October 19, 1730
Christopher?	(a sponsor for one of Eva Barbara's children)

George Michael?	(a sponsor for two of Eva Barbara's children)
Maria Eva Barbara	born April 12, 1739 baptized April 22, 1739
Eva	born July 18, 1741 baptized July 19, 1741

George Michael Eichelberger and Christina Elser were married by Rev. John Casper Stoever at Warwick Township on November 25, 1754.

Eva Barbara Eichelberger, (born at Warwick Township), married John Phillippi on August 2, 1757 at Warwick Township. (See page 717).

JOB DESCRIPTION - DUTIES OF "CEMETERY CHAIRMAN"

by

CETA RODGERS ARMITAGE

EDITOR'S NOTE: Member CETA RODGERS ARMITAGE headed up the Society's "Cemetery Committee" for several years, while they "read" the 87 cemeteries located in Hillsborough County. Those 87 plus 2 in Polk County that are "on the line" or near by will be included in the "Cemetery Books". Five of the eight books planned have been published and the sixth is "in the mill". CETA has typed EVERY WORD of these books! Some time ago Member PATRICIA DETRICK WOODS asked CETA to write up her "duties" -- they follow.

"In the summer of 1983 when JEAN JONES (President of the Society at that time) asked me about taking on this job of being Chairman for the cemetery project, I had NO idea how huge the undertaking would be. If I had known then what I know now, my answer would have been NO, A THOUSAND TIMES NO!!

To begin with it was so hot that I waited until cooler weather, and then started recording some of the cemeteries by myself as time permitted. During the time I wasn't recording one, I was asking questions at the Court House where I was directed to the Appraiser's Office. To my surprise they did not have a listing of the cemeteries in Hillsborough County....I thought surely they would be on some type of list as most are exempt from taxes.... They had one manilla folder with perhaps 15 or 20 sheets of paper pertaining to requests for tax exemption, etc.

FRITZ UHLE of the Appraisers Office gave me a plat map and a small card that would help to determine the section, township and range -- so that I could mark the locations...and wanted ME to return to HIS office so they could make a professional one and give us a copy and that way THEY would have a complete and up-to-date one. I thought when I left there...."NO wonder our taxes are in a mess if the appraisers' office doesn't know....

Dear Vivian, ...,

My goodness, I was sorry to hear of your accident in Salt Lake! Hope you are doing O. K. by now.

We just got back from a month in Dodge City with my Mother. While there, I read through some more of the old AHSGR Journals and Clues and found this passenger list which I think is Catherina Dahlinger, sister of Susana, Jacob, Johannes, and Karl. If this is correct, she would have arrived in the U.S. before Jacob and the others. I think Lisbeth was Lydia, and Jacob is the twin of Emanuel. I don't know who Marie was, but she could have belonged to someone else, since Catherina already had a Marie age 9. According to Emma Haynes who worked up these lists, it was not unusual to find mistakes on them. Infants under one year came free, so there were lots of 11 month old infants.

The other enclosure of Jacob and Anna's familyes dates came from Irene Georg the daughter of Louise Ehrlich and Theodore Frey. I talked to her by phone, but she didn't have time to see me this trip, since her sister is recovering from a broken hip. She did say there were relatives in Colorado, but she didn't know where they were now. I think my Grandmother, Lydia, had a Brother who lived in Brighton, CO in 1941, and had a son who had a sugar beet farm there at that time. I have made inquiries, but haven't been able to find out for sure. The son was named Fred, but I don't know the name of the Borther.

Re the Letters:
#7 Uncle Karl is the Brother of Johannes /Ehrlich.

Lydia 's maiden name was (Surprise) Ehrlich. Her parents were John Fredericke and Catharine Elizabeth Brandt Ehrlich. She was a cousin of her husband, Johannes. I don't think it was a first cousin, and one account suggests 4th, but I don't know. Her Sister, Anna, married Jacob, Brother of Johannes. So my Mother and all her siblings were double cousins of all of their children. These two brothers also worked together in the flour milling business in Marion, and were active members of the same church there. Jacob was minister. All three brothers and their Mother had been baptised by immersion in Russia by George Burgdorff, a reformed Lutheran traveling missionary who was not liked by the established Lutheran clergy. (but I digress)
Letter 10 & 12: Reh is the last name of Mary who was a member of the Marion Church and was staying with the family and helping with the house work.

Dear Vivian,

Just got back from a month in Dodge City with my Mother. While there, I read through some more of the old ARBOR journals and came across this passenger list which I think is fascinating reading, sister of Queens, Jacob, Johannes, and Mary. If this is correct, she would have arrived in the U.S. before Jacob and the others. I think Liesbeth was Lydia, and Jacob is the twin of Emanuel. According to Emma Haynes who worked up those lists, it was not unusual to find mistakes on them. Infants under one year came free, so there were lots of 11 month old infants.

The other enclosure of Jacob and Anna's families dates came from Irene Deery the daughter of Lydia Shellich and Theodore Frey. I talked to her by phone, but she didn't have time to see me this trip, since her sister is recovering from a broken hip. She did say there were relatives in Colorado, but she didn't know where they were now. I think my Grandmother, Lydia, had a brother who lived in Brighton, CO in 1941, and had a son who had a sugar beet farm there at that time. re the letters:

My Uncle Karl is the brother of Johannes \Shellich.

I don't think it was a first cousin, and one account suggests both, but I don't know. Her sister, Anna, married Jacob, brother of Johannes. So my Mother and all her siblings were double cousins of all of their children. (but I digress)

Letter 10 & 12: Ken is the last name of Mary who was a member of the Marion Church and was staying with the family and helping with the house work.

Letter # 12 Turgen and Durgen are Torgun a small village on the east side of the Volge It is in quadrant E &/ 7 of the Stumpp map. It was east of Galke on the map, almost off the page on the Torgun River.
#14 the last name is Wollert. This is the husband of one of Lydia's Sisters. (I think they came to the US, but I haven't been able to trace them for sure.)
#9 Alexander is the Brother of Lydia. Catherine is Lydia's Sister-in-law. Jacob Ehrlich is the Son of Gottfried, the Brother of John.
#8 Grandmother is Lydia's Mother Catherine Elizabeth Brandt Ehrlich. The old aunt is the sister of Lydia's Father, I think. since she wants to go to Kamyshin.
#11 Uncle Gottfried is the Brother of John Ehrlich.
#11 & 12 Aunt Cho Elizabeth in paragraph 1 is the widow of Conrad, the Brother of John. The Cho Elizabeth on page 2 of letter # 11 is John's sister who was married to the late George Heinrich and living in Blumenfeld. (this is on the east side of the Volga about half way between Galka and Torgun.)
#11 Aunt Amelia is the wife of David, Brother of John, who lives in Torgun where this letter was from.
#11 Uncle George Heinrich is deceased. He was the husband of Cho. Elizabeth, sister of Johannes.
#12 Uncle David Ehrlich is the Brother of John who lives in Torgun.
#13 Asael T. (A.T.) Ehrlich about 22 yrs. old at this time was the oldest son of John and Lydia going to school in Rochester N.Y. Maria (Mary) was about 10 and Anna 10 are their daughters back home in Marion, KS.
#12 Ferdinand is their 14 year old son and Leona (My Mother) is their 8 year old daughter back in Marion.
#17 George is a nephew of Lydia 's staying with the family back in Marion. He may have been around 20 years old and last name was Ehrlich or Wollert. His sister, Maria, is married to Constantine Niedens from Kamyshin. (I am still trying to track down George.)
If you still have those family tree charts I worked up last year, it might help to look them over while working up the index.

The thing about "The Letters" is that three were written by Lydia and the others by John. Lydia spent most of her time in Russia at Kanischovs-Muhle (Mill) . This was a mill on the Jlowlja River, But it is not on any maps. It is where Lydia's Mother lived and where her Father was buried. John's old home place was Tscherbakowka where Gottfried still lived. His family was more adventuresome and he had Brothers living on the far East side of the Volga. His side trips took him to Torgun, Strassburg, and Blumenfeld.

John's family was older than Lydia's. In fact, Jacob Ehrlich had gone to Russia in 1891 to see his old father "one more time." He must have been born around 1812 to 1815 to have had a daughter, Catherine Dahlinger, who was 41 in 1876. I am beginning to think that John and Lydia were second cousins, and that Christoph Ehrlich and Mary Margaret Eichman were Lydian Grandparents and John's Parents. I have no verification for this, however. I have come across all kinds of these Ehrlichs where there were inter marriages between cousins of one degree or another.

I will be very interested in getting a copy of your index of the Letters. I am not sure how to go about indexing something, and I know it is very important to do with cross indexes of married names and all. It would certainly kelp in keeping these Ehrlichs straight. I have 3 family histories of Ehrlichs and none of them indexed.

I would also like to have copies of any charts which you have.

I don't know anything about computers, but I am beginning to think they would be a real aid in keeping these names and dates straight, and establishing relationships, if any, between names. Any names of descendants of Tscherbakowka which you have would be helpful to me.

I haven't heard from Brent Mai yet either. He wrote his family history when he was in High School 15 or so years ago, and is now on the AHSGR Board. He is originally from Kansas, but that is all I know about him.

I'm sorry this got so long. Hope you haven't fallen asleep reading it.

Sincerely,

Kathy

Kathy O'Malley

P. S. If you index towns as well as people, Zarizin is Tsartsyn also called Stallingrad and Volgagrad at various times. Torgun had a population of 168 in 1926. Jelowetka is probably the Russian city Ilovatka (Ilowatka in German) across the Volga River from Shcherbakovka. Wisele could ba an estate, or it could be the Russian name for Unterdorf. (This from JoAnn Kuhn.)

PLEASE STRAIGHTEN THESE NAMES OUT FOR ME, KATHY !!!!!

I Remember Well

by Eva Socolofsky Peay

[Eva wrote this in 1975 at age 82 and dedicated it to the memory of her parents and her brothers Solomon, Karl and Paul. She was bothered by arthritis but remembered that her ancestors "were a non violent Christian Folk--always ready to go the second mile when help was needed." She wrote that "the older I grow, I realize what a wonderful heritage" the Socolofskys have.]

FIRST OF ALL, I WOULD LIKE to repeat a story my mother told me about her life in Russia. This particular incident has always intrigued me. Her family consisted of father, Frederick Dahlinger, mother, Catherine Dahlinger nee Ehrlich, sister Lydia, an older sister Eva, whom I was named for had died in childbirth and twin brothers Jacob and Immanuel. Her father was an itinerant Baptist minister, also a lover of fast horses. Consequently, when he made his preaching rounds he always rode a fast horse. They lived not too far from the "Turkish" border where an outlaw band, she called them "Tartars," made their living stealing fast horses and selling them. She said that often he was chased by these men, but always managed to reach home safely.

Eva Socolofsky Peay's last picture, about 1975

THEY DECIDED TO COME TO America in 1876, because of a Russian law, that every male, at age eighteen, must serve a year in the army. Russia had a treaty with Germany, signed by the highest authority in the land that this would never happen to German-Russian sons. They broke that treaty many years ago. When they left Russia, mother was ten years old, Lydia about two years older and the twin brothers four years of age. They were allowed to take only a small amount of money, just enough to get them to America. The rest was confiscated by the government. They must have traveled overland by rail from Saratov to Hamburg, crossed the North Sea to England, thence from Liverpool by steamship to America. Mother often spoke of the rough crossing, but never mentioned the name of the ship they sailed on. Her uncles, the Ehrlich brothers, Jacob, John and Karl came at the same time. Jacob's wife was Anna; John's Lydia. I think they were distantly related--fourth cousins, perhaps. Karl was the youngest brother. His wife was Marie Pauls. I knew her personally, as well as Aunt Anna and Aunt Lydia.

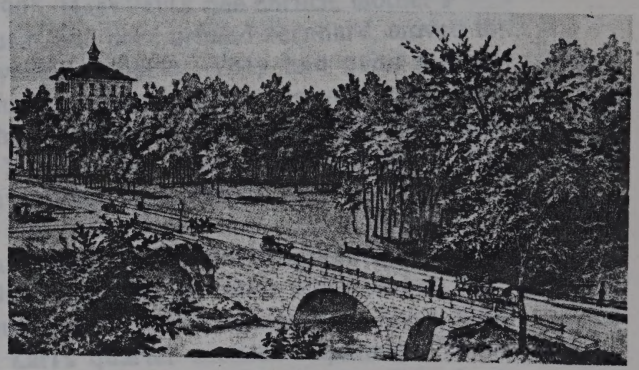
THEY CAME TO MARION, KANSAS, because it was good wheat country, also it lay between two rivers, the Cottonwood and Mud Creek. (When I went to school I was taught the proper name was Luta.) Since they were millers by trade, they needed to build a mill and a dam. A short distance away, they built a church, small, but adequate. All this was built of native rock. Sad to relate, mother's father died during the first year in America and I don't know where he was buried.

ON FEBRUARY 3, 1883, MOTHER married Andrew Socolofsky. The ceremony was performed by Uncle Jacob Ehrlich in Marion. Her sister Lydia was married later to Henry Fromm. He was an orphan and we never knew what part of Russia he came from. Since we were their only relatives, we have always kept in close touch with them. One son and two daughters still live around Hutchinson, Kansas. Their youngest daughter was married to Otto Pauls.

OF COURSE, I KNOW ALL THE children in our family, except for Clara and Paul, were born on the farm near Tampa, Kansas. When we moved to Marion, I assume it was to give us the opportunity for a better education, and I personally remember the events occuring from the time of that move. Certainly, I have lived in a most interesting era. There were two schools in Marion, the Valley School, where I studied reading, writing and arithmetic, nine months of the year and the High School, where I studied German the remaining three months. The High School on the top of the hill was built of native rock. I have many fond memories of that school, of adjoining Central Park with its band stand, etc.



Central Park, Marion KS, (from Atlas of Kansas, 1887) showing the stone arch bridge over Mud Creek and on the Hill at left the school, considered in 1986 as the oldest public school in Kansas still used for school purposes

ONE OF MY VIVID MEMORIES of those years is "The Oliver Bros. Revival Meetings." A tent was put up across the street from Central Park and all the churches in town took part. All the young people sang in the choir. Each choir had a special seating place on the platform. I remember so well that our own German Baptist choir sat on the extreme left. Sol and Karl were there. One of the Brothers was music director. I can still see him, standing on a chair waving his baton. The other Brother did the preaching. The pianist was Miss Thorpe, from the Presbyterian Church. She later married one of the Brothers. I assume it was the music director. However, the point I want to make and this is important, my parents, and my brothers were all converted at these meetings.

THERE WERE TWO RAILROADS going through town, the Rock Island, north and east to Kansas City and the Santa Fe, west to McPherson. There was a junction of these railroads a short distance from our home, which I had to cross on my way to school. One morning, while running across my foot got caught between the rails. I sat there screaming at the top of my lungs, because I could hear the train coming. A neighbor, Mr. Dockstater, heard me, came running, unlaced my shoe, and I pulled my foot out. Think I forgot to say, "Thank you" and I ran on to school. Also, I remember when another area in Oklahoma Territory was opened by the president in 1896. My father was there. I remember, quite vividly, when President McKinley was assassinated in 1901, by an anarchist named Czolgosz.

UNCLE JOHN EHRLICH, HIS WIFE Lydia, and daughter Emma, went to Russia in 1901. Uncle John hoped to collect some of grandmother's money. We all walked along the railroad track to Peabody to see them off to New York. I don't recall how long they were gone, but we met them the same way, when they came back. Incidently, Uncle John was able to get only $700, a very small portion of her fortune. The Ehrlichs of my generation I knew very well. We played together, went to school together, to church and Sunday school in the little rock church.

IN THE MEANTIME, MOTHER'S TWIN brothers, my uncles Jake and Immanuel, had grown to manhood. They, together with help of the Ehrlichs, built a large frame house for my grandmother, on the street near us, just back a little. It had a large side porch. She often sat on this sunny porch, and I would comb her hair at her request. I remember that she wore her hair in braids, pinned up in back.

IN 1905, MARY PAULS, nee Ehrlich, mother's cousin, and her husband Bernhard, moved to Daysland, Alberta. They had quite a large family, one daughter Alma, and six of seven boys. They lived in Lehigh Kansas where we visited them frequently. Two of the older boys served in the Canadian Army during World War 1.

WE ALSO MOVED TO CANADA, to Saskatchewan in 1906. The land my father chose was on the south bank of the Saskatchewan River, with Solomon and Karl's quarter sections adjoining. There were other settlers there, some from the U.S., from Ontario, from Sweden, England, Finland and elsewhere. Clara and I attended a country school, Bonnie View

District, and the building also served as a church, where I played the organ from the time of fourteen years of age until I was married. We soon had many friends among the young people. Because my piano was the only one around in our neighborhood, our home soon became a gathering place for Sunday afternon "Sing Outs." When Loreburn, the nearest town, came into being, we were often invited to sing at different functions. We had formed a Literary Society, where some of the members would recite poems or give short plays and guests were always welcome. Sometimes a guest wanted to sing a solo, but lacked accompaniment. Because of my ability to improvise or transpose music I was often asked to accompany strangers whom I did not know, and soon I was known as "That little Socolofsky girl."

DURING THIS PERIOD OF MY LIFE we often saw the Aurora Borealis, better known as "The Northern Lights." They were unbelievable and I also remember seeing "Halley's Comet," streaking across the western sky and I thought I felt the earth tremor because of the comet. In 1913 I went to Oklahoma to study music for a year. On the way I stopped in Marion to visit with some of the Ehrlich cousins. While staying with Uncle Karl and Aunt Marie I met her sister Lena, who was married to a Russian Prince. During the Red Revolution they lived through terror after terror before they finally escaped to America.

I HAVE MANY MEMORIES OF my mother--she was a clever person. In Canada the Methodists and Presbyterians (there were no Baptists) had united and called themselves "The United Church." Mother had learned to speak English very well, but she never attended church, because she could not understand English sermons very well. But she entertained the "Ladies Aid Society" just like it was her own home church. When she was no longer able to do things, they would come and visit with her and bring her flowers. She was lovingly referred to as "Aunt Mary" by all her friends. Brother Solomon was also very clever. He designed and built a small brick church on the spot of the Bonnie View School. He was an elder in the church. When Clara and I, with our children, went home on summer vacations, we attended this church. Now our children are grown and Clara and I have only fond memories of those wonderful years.

INTRODUCTION TO "THE LETTERS" from Russia in 1903

On May 15, 1903, at the age of 49, Johannes Ehrlich with his wife, Lydia, 47, and their youngest child, Emma, six, sailed frmo New York City for Bremen, Germany, for a four month trip to visit their families in Russia. Emma had trouble perspiring, and she was particularly bothered by hot weather. They stopped in Germany to see if a specialist there would have any suggestions to aleviate her condition, They took the train through Berlin to Moscow and on to Kamyschin on the Volga River. They visited twenty towns or villages in Russia. Lydia and Em spent a great deal of their time in Kanischovs-Muhle where Lydia's Mother, Catharina Elizabeth Brandt Ehrlich, lived; and where her Father, John Fredericke Ehrlich was buried. Johnnes took side trips to Torgun and Blumenfeld to visit a brother and sister. He also spent additional time with his brother, Gottfried, who lived in Tscherbakowka where descendents of his Great Grandfather still lived.

In 1970, Helen Ehrlich Stiles, the oldest daughter of A. T. Ehrlich, translated 18 letters from the German script into English. She sent copies of both the German and English to all of the Grandchildren of Johannes and Lydia.

The following 12 letters are those actually written from Russia. Johannes wrote 9 and Lydia 3 of these on June 10, Jlyn 24, and August 7. A set of these letters in both German and English has been donated to the American Historical Society of Germans from Russia in Lincoln, Nebraska. The following letters are the English translations, with some samples of the German in the back.

The family photograph was taken shortly before they left. The photo of David Ehrlich of Torgun, Russia, is believed to have been taken at about the same time.

They planned to board the ship Kaiser Wilhelm II the Great on Sept. 8, 1903, for the trip back to New York and Marion, Kansas. But they may have come back 6 days later on the Bremen.

The two "family tree charts" have not all been verified at this date.

Dear Vivian,

I have just had correspondence from Jo Ann Kuhr, AHSGR Researcher, including a copy of your family sheet on Susana and Johannes Nusz. I am very happy to get this, as I have been doing research on my Grandfather, Johannes Ehrlich, and I think Susana was his sister.

Until I started working on this last year, I didn't even know he had a sister in this country. I received a photo copy of Susana and John abd two of their sons from a second cousin, Karl Ehrlich, last year, but Karl didn't have any other information on the family. The enclosed sheet is the information we have come up with so far. I don't know if you are interested in any of this or not, but if you are I could supply more info. as I come across it.

All three of the brothers were millers in Marion and Lehigh, Kansas. According to a "Protrait and Biographical Record" printed in 1892 of Morris, Marion and Dickinson Counties, Jacob and John came to America in 1876. Their family had lived in Tscherbakowka for 115 years. That would put their arrival in Russia in 1777.

If you have any additional information on Susana, I would very much like to know about it. I would like to find out the names of earlier ancestors. I have names of;

Peter Ehrlich and Madelene Ruhmig and Christoph Ehrlich and Mary Margaret Eichman

but I think they are on my Grandmother's side (another Ehrlich) whose sister, Anna, married Jacob.

My Mother at age 97 is Johanne's next to youngest daughter and the last survisor of her generation. She is still my best sourse of information, but her memory isn't quite as good as it was a few years ago.

JoAnn Kuhr said to send you her greetings. She has been very helpful in supplying information which they have in Lincoln.

Sincerely,
Kathryn O'Malley

Dear Vivian,

How nice to hear from someone who knows what they are doing in this area of genealogy! I'm afraid my experience is very limited. I started this a little over a year ago by joining the AHSGR and writing all the names in their Clues magazine that listed an interest in Ehrlichs. Most of the responses did not go back as far as I am interested in, and none were my brand of Ehrlichs as far as I could tell. JoAnn Kuhr thinks all Ehrlichs from Tscherbakowka are related, if we can just figure out how. She sent me lots of obituaries which I have listed on cards, but so far they don't fit my group as far as I know it.

How does one go about sorting all this out? Do you have any forms of a grander scale? I got some of the census records from Karl Ehrlich who got them from LDS film, so there could be errors in transcribing. However, I think Karl Ehrlich's son Bernard was born in 1887 rather than 1889, and John Ehrlich, my Grandfather was born in 1853 rather than 1856. The only family bible which a cousin of mine in New York has (see enclosed sheet) did not contain any other written information.

This language problem between Russian and German only adds to the puzzle. My Mother's Mother said that she came from Commission, and that is the way it is spelled in her funeral booklet. In looking at a Russian map with my Brother-in-law who speaks Russian and German, he pointed out Kamyshin and called it "Commission," so I felt sure this was what I had been looking for. However there was a Kamyshin district as well as the town, and I don't know which is right.

At any rate, you have probably realized that Shaverkofka is Tscherbokowka. And I imagine Dongolonoka is Gololobowka. I looked on the big colored map I got from the AHSGR and didn't find anything any closer.

I got some information from a Marion Baptist Church 75th anniversary booklet put out in 1975, but a list of members does not contain Nusz. Do you know what religion they were? My Grandparents were very religious as were most of their children. I haven't been able to sort out what they were in Russia. I just wrote the Center for Mennonite Brethern Studies at Tabor College in Hillsboro, Ks. to see if they had any information, so maybe I will hear something later. Karl Ehrlich visited them and that is where he got Christoph's name. They didn't have his wife's name, however.

Do you have access to all the copies of the AHSGR Journals? I got the one for the Spring 1985 (Vol 8 No. 1) and there is an article by Vern Beilman on "Researching the Germanic Origins of Your Volga-German Ancestoer." It includes a page of phrases which can be used in trying to determine the location in Germany from whence came our ancestoer by using the "Wenker Sentences." I don't know if it would work, but I will try it with my Mother when I see her.

I had Karl Stumpps' book briefly from inter library loan, but had to turn it back in before I really studied it. I didn't find any Ehrlichs listed. There were Eichmans and Brandts, but I didn't know how to get from here to there with what I know now. I also read the books by James Long, Adam Giesinger, Fred Koch and Hattie Plum Williams which were very worthwhile, in my view.

Our inter library loan here sometimes takes months, and I don't think there is much on Germans from Russia in Arkansas libraries.

The information I have on Ehrlichs in Russia comes from 18 letters which were written from my Grandparents to their children in 1903 when they took a three month trip to Russia. They visited 20 different villages and I have found all but about six on the map. The letters were translated into English by a cousin in 1970.

Library in Shattuck, OK

I did get information from a correspondent that there are two books on Peter Ehrlich family history in Shattuck, Oklahoma. Would you know how to get copies of them? She also mentioned that there were Ehrlich papers on file at Great Bend, Ellis and Ellsworth, Kansas; and suggested contacting Luray, Sylvan Grove, and Lincoln County, Ks. I don't know how to do this. Do you have any ideas?

Send to me by ?

It is great to get the photocopy of Christoph. Would it be possible to get the actual photo copied so as to get a clearer copy? I could use three copies and would pay any costs. Of the enclosed photos, those with the typed titles came from Karl Ehrlich. I have the photographs of the others.

Your planned trip to Salt Lake sounds interesting. Let me know if you turn up anything in the meantime, and I will do the same.

24 July 1991

Dear Kathy:

Thank you so much for sending that Lehigh Mennonite Brethren Church record. Wish that I could read and understand German because I know that newspapers are great sources of information, but I do hate to read those old papers...it is sooo tedious!! That researcher that just charges $7.00 hr to read those records sure does work cheap. That is such hard work or it seems so to me, guess we each have our own thing, don't we?

I sure hope that you can glean something from the copies of the census that I'm enclosing. At one time I read all of Marion Co., KS 1900 and copied all the Ehrlich(s). So I'll just photocopy those for you also.

Now to your letter of the 17th July. Since the George Ehrlich family came over in 1876, the next census was 1880. (forgive me if you already know all this)... There is an index to the 1880 census called the Soundex. The Government made it for certain purposes...mainly to project population so they had people read the 1880 census and make little cards on the families who had in the family unit, children of 10 or younger. So you see it is not an everyname index. So I found them in Russell Co.,KS in 1880 and made a microprint of it.

Unfortunately, my library does not have the 1910 Index or Census to Kansas...that really cramps my style!! But if you find that you really need to see a census you do know about the Morman Branch 'Libraries' where you could go to one of their churches, Church of the Latter Day Saints, and they usually have one branch in every Stake (division) and you go to this room in their church and order from Salt Lake City the film that you wish to view. Don't know what they charge now but when it comes in, they call and you can go back to view the film. Very good, especially if you reside in a small area and don't have a large library to use.

You asked about the Chris Seibel family. Here is where the 1910 census is needed- so I went to the 1900 Index and found a Chrition Seibel in Marion Co.,KS and also found them in the 1880 Census, copies enclosed. This Chrition Seibel was in the Index and Indexes are notorious for being very inaccurate. So let me know, and sometime or other I will read Marion Co. again and look for these names that you need. But then again, maybe the names of the children will give you a clue as to who this man is.

Some of these films are pretty worn and really don't make too good a copy, but on the Dahlinger search I really had a time trying to get a legible print. Notice that your widow, Catherine Dahlinger, daughter and two sons and in the same household as the Henry Frome family. This was the census enumerator's 93rd visit and the 103rd and 104th families to enumerate. Also, the Ehrlich(s) are nearby.

I did check for the George Ehrlich family in the 1880 Cherokee Indian rolls. You said that they might have been in Oklahoma, and the first census for OK is 1900. The whites were also on this Indian roll and I just took a chance that they might show up but they didn't.

Since you have the name of the ship, the date and the names of the passengers and I guess the port of entry, try writing to the National Archives. You are dealing with the government, so you will need a form. Write to-
Reference Services Branch (NNIR), General Services Administration, Washington, D. C. 20408 and ask for 3 or 4 passenger arrival forms. When they come, fill it in and maybe you will be able to get a copy of the record. They will bill you for the amount, if they find anything. There is a book, The Morton Allen Directory of European Passenger Steamship Arrivals but unfortunately, it was not on the shelf when I was at the Library.

I might make a recommendation here, that you or your Library should have a copy of Guide to Genealogical Research in the National Archives published by the General Services Administration and could be ordered by a book store, I guess or ordered from Deseret Book Company, 44 E. South Temple, Salt Lake City, UT 84111.

Before I forget, my latest letter to Paul Mitsch was not answered either, maybe there is an illness or something. What did you want to ask him?

Must close this and hopefully get it in the mail tomorrow.

You just don't know heat until you have experienced the high, high humidity of dear old Houston. We have been having afternoon showers and in some cases storms and then that just leaves us in an oven!! I've seen the TV and watched while they tell that Houston is getting rain and we haven't had a drop...Houston is just too doggone big. Most of the big rains have been falling in the Northern sections and we are in the SouthWest section of the town. But they still say that we are something like 18" over our normal rainfall for this time of the year. We always have a long dry spell and I keep expecting it any minute!!

Take care and let me know if I can do anything else for you.

Sincerely —

Enclo. —

Dear Vivian:

Thought I'd better send the enclosed copy from the Lehigh Mennonnit Brethern Church before I lose it among all of my obituaries! My Mother didn't translate all of the headings on the columns, but did get the main ones: The second one is Parents; third, Born; fourth, Baptised; and eighth, Died. The name we want is Karl Ehrlich half way down the page. If you find someone who can read German script, they might be able to fill in the other column headings. They might also be able to get some additional words on Bible title page which I sent earlier.

I wrote Paul Mitsch on June 8, but never did hear from him. You might be able to do better, since you have had had contact with him before.

The LDS Genealogical Library says they do not have any film from the Volga area in Russia. They suggest writing the Russian Consulate in Washington, but I doubt that that would be fruitful. They also said they get 1,000 letters a week!

I'm trying to get film of the Marion Record newspaper, but haven't heard yet. The Kansas Historical Society in Topeka has a microfilm interlibrary loan program, but they require call numbers on information requested.

I've been reading The Source, A Guidebook of American Genealogy which our local librarian loaned me. It continues to amaze me how much information is out there. I haven't gotten anything from other libraries yet, however.

I am still trying to find the third sister of my Grandmother and fill in some additional info. on other siblings. Could you see if any of these are on your census records?

Don't waste your valuable time on any of this if it is not readily accessible. My main interest is in the history of all of this.

I have been trying to figure out how the Ehrlichs got from Luthern to Mennonite to Baptist. Brother George Burgdorff wrote "Erlebnisse" published in 1924. He was a missionary or traveling minister preacher in Russia. He is the one who baptised the three Ehrlich brothers and Catherine in Russia. He was a great friend of Jakob Ehrlich who was a preacher in Russia.

I just had a letter from Karl Ehrlich. I had sent him a copy of Susan Nusz' family sheet and Christoph's picture. He got most of his information from the family bible and a cousin who did some work on it before he died. I think what he has is pretty accurate.

Hope your research is coming along well. Is it as hot in Houston as it is in Arkansas?

He was a missionary or traveling minister preacher in Russia. He is the one who baptised the three Ehrlich brothers and Catherine in Russia. He was a great friend of Jakob Ehrlich who was a preacher in Russia.

I just had a letter from Karl Ehrlich. I had sent him a copy of Susan Nuss' family sheet and Christoph's picture. He got most of his information from the family bible and a cousin who did some work on it before he died. I think what he has is pretty accurate.

Hope your research is coming along well. Is it as hot in Houston as it is in Arkansas?

Sincerely,

Kathy O'Malley

Dear Mrs. O'Malley,

Received your request regarding the Ehrlich family.

Yes, I compiled the Ehrlich family group from data in my possession, as I had reserached the Ehrlich family a year ago for another gentleman from out-of-state.

The verification of the father being Christoph Ehrlich is from the Lehigh Mennonite Brethren Church records, data which I located last summer.

There is considerable information available on the Ehrlich brothers in the German and Mennonite newspapers from 1880's on-- notices regarding business ventures, the mills, trips they made, and in particular concerning Jakob Ehrlich, items regarding his church in Marion, the church celebrations, sermons, etc. This is all in German, and takes time to be dug out of the old papers.

If you are interested, I research families on a hourly basis, of $7.00 an hour, which includes translation work and a typed copy. Xeroxing and postage is extra. I generally require 2 hours payment in advance ($14.00).

I trust this information is of help to you.

Sincerely,

Peggy Goertzen

Dear Kathy:

Your letter of 8 Aug has been caught under a pile of paper and finally it surfaced today as I was playing my usual 'catch-up'.

Glad to be of use with the census records I sent. I do appreciate the further info on the Ehrlichs.

Before I forget, I've been wanting to ask you for a favor. My DAR chapters have as a continuing project the copying of vital records that are usually in a family and are just handed down (maybe!) to other members of the family. The Daughters of the Revolution want to have in their Library in Wash.,D.C. copies of Bible records, copies of the hand written little sketch that grand mother wrote on her family, or in your case, the letters that your grandparents? wrote back to the U.S. when they were on their trip back to the old country. Baptismal records, things like that are what we look for.

I find that I am the Genealogical Records Chairman for my DAR Chapter. I am sending in the Nusz book that I put together and I thought about your letters that you had referred to in the past. I assume that they were in German, we could attach a translation to each letter. Your name as donor would, of course, be on these records and perhaps when other Ehrlich researchers see this, they would get in touch with you. This ois a beautiful way of preservation of the old records as well as maybber furthering our own line.

The DAR is very, very particular about how we handle these things. With what ever you send to me, I will have to have it copied on acid=free paper, Index the names that occur within the document and then send it on to my State Chairman, who would then send them on to Washington. A certain width has to be left free on the left side of the paper so that it may be bound without hiding any writing...things like that are required. Would you consider this? I sure would appreciate this. I have to have them in to my State Chairman by first of Dec. of this year.

I up dated my Nusz book last month and most of the stuff that was put in was the Ehrlich info that you sent. The Wisc. Historical Society had written wanting to purchase...someone must of seen it in Salt Lake City. Anyway, I wanted you to know that Wisc. now has copies of my Nusz/Ehrlich lines!!

October is our usual time to try and visit our three daughters and we are just back from Tulsa, OK where our youngest is now. Next week we plan to go to CO around Denver, to see our other two girls. One lives in Idaho Sprgs. but works in Denver and the other, just back from Turkey is now at Fort Carson (rather her husband, a civilian working for the Army as Engineer) in Colorado Sprgs.

So when we get back in a few weeks, I hope that you will have seen fit to let us publish your original documents, Bible records or letters are whatever.

I'll keep in touch.

Dear Vivian,

Thanks so much for sending the census records. They clear us some of my confusion!

I also heard from Karl Ehrlich this week and he sent a family chart that his cousin Barney had made before he died. It doesn't have any dates to speak of, or any documentation, but it does help fill in some of the blanks. What he has on all of my Mother's siblings is correct, so let's hope some of the rest is. Here's what it shows that we don't already have:

Susana and Juhannus Nusz children:
John had a hardware store.
Theo was a general merchandise merchant
Karl married Martha Peters (This may be incorrect)
Dave was a flour miller and trader
Sol never married. He had a bad speech defect.

KATHERINE AND FRED DAHLINGER children:
Jacob married Jessie Melchert (He was 7 in 1880 according to your census sheet) He had a general merchandise store and later a shoe store.
Emanuel married 1) Elizabeth ____
2) Maria____
He was a department store part owner and later had a clothing factory.
Lydia (who was 16 in 1880) was married to Henry Fromm who was a farmer. (He was 24 and working in a flour mill probably Jacob and John's)
Maria married Andrew Socolofsky. Maria was 13 in 1880.
A Mr. and Mrs. Andreas Socolofsky were members of the Marion Emmanuel Baptist Church, and were baptised on 7 Dec. 1902. This may be they. There are also the following Socolofsky's and date of Baptism:

Solomon	11 May 1902
Karl	13 July 1902
Maria Catharine	25 Jan. 1877
Gottlieb	15 Mar. 1876
Mrs. Gottlieb	"
Frederick	22 May 1896

Here's what it shows that we don't already have:

Susana and Johanna Muse children:
John had a hardware store.
Theo was a general merchandise merchant
Karl married Martha Peters (This may be incorrect)
Dave was a flour miller and trader
Sol never married. He had a bad asbestos defect.

KATHERINE AND FRED DAHLINGER children:
Jacob married Josie Melobert (He was 7 in 1880 according to your census sheet) He had a general merchandise

GEORGE AND MARTHA CHILDREN
Alex

1898

Your June, 1900 Census of Wilson Township in Marion Co. shows:

	Birth Date.	Age
George			Farmer Pa im. 1876
Catherine	Nov 1850	47/9	13 children 12 living
Frederick	Dec 1876	23	Born in Kansas
Maria	Feb. 1880	20	"
Alexander	Sep. 1882	17
Johanna	Jun. 1885	14
David	Sep. 1887	12
Anna	Aug. 1889	10
Pauline	Oct. 1891	8
Emma	Oct. 1893	6
Zelma	"

Catherine Elizabeth Ehrlich was born 26 Nov. 1850 and died 3 May 1938. Her obituary says one daughter died at 9 months and 4 sons and 7 daughters survived her. Two of these dates match, and we are only short one child, so maybe this is the right Ehrlich.

JAKOB AND ANNA Children:
John Foot caught in stirup. dragged to death by horse.
David married Maggie Siefert farmer
Karl married Dora (Dorothy) Falkman (She used to baby sit Dwight Eisenhower when she was a girl in Abilene, Ks. Her husband operated a lumber yard and hardware store in Durham, Ks. for a number of years. In 1969 she was living in a rest home in Turlock, CA. where her son Roy and family lived, according to an article in the Marion Record newspaper, May 1969)
Joanna (I think maybe this should be Jonah)
Was engaged to be married, but died of the flu
Alia "Al" " " (He was in the Navy in WWI)
Maria married Bernhard Pauls who had a lumber yard
Anna married Dave Socolofsky (I think this is the DD under Socolofsky)
Louise married Theo. Frey who was a minister. (Lived in St. John, Kansas.)
Eunice married Jerry Tryoer (Tyler/?) who had a gift store.
Eva married Mr. ~~Schade~~ Andrews
Cassia married Mr. Schade
Johanna married Henry Melchert a farmer. (I believe he is the one who was a member of the Marion Church baptised 7 Dec. 1902.

Karl also send an obituary of Rev. Jacob Ehrlich in the Marion Record Aug. 17, 1905 which says: "He was married to his cousin Anna Ehrlich." I don't know if it was a first or second cousin, but maybe we will find out some day.

I had written Paul Mitsch to see if he would loan me his photo of Christoph so I could make some copies.

I am driving up to Dodge City with my sister to visit my Mother the last two weeks in August. While I am there I will try to get some more information.

We were going to go swimming today, but decided to just stay home in the air conditioning instead. Hope you haven't yet melted down there in the heat belt.

Dear Kathy:

Maybe by now you have heard from Priscilla Norman, daughter of David Nusz. She called the other day to thank me for the copy of the little Nusz Booklet that I sent to her add her daughter.

I hadn't heard for so long that it had been received that I was sorta worried that this dear woman, who helped me so much with the Nusz line , had gone to meet her Maker. Thankfully not yet. But she did want your address as she and her daughter, Virginia are taking a trip to Kansas and wanted to talk with you and they were having a time finding you listed under 'Katherine'. That was what I had given to Priscilla. Much confusion. But I do hope that you all will be able to visit, it would mean a lot to her, I know.

I would appreciate a loan of the book or group of records from those letters from Russia. Send them, if you can, return receipt requested and that way you will know that they have been received.

I'm up to my ears with records and trying to meet this first dead line of Dec. 15. But if your records are not here in time, I can include them in 1992. If I find that I can get or better yet have someone else do it, if better copies can be made, one will be in the DAR Library in Washington, D.C., Texas State Archives and Clayton Library here in Houston.

Thanks a bunch for your time and effort.

Dear Vivian,

I just got your letter yesterday, and thought I'd best answer it while it is on my mind.

"The letters" that you asked about are explained briefly on this poor carbon copy of an introduction I wrote to include with part of them which I plan to send to the Tabor College library in Hillsboro, Kansas. I thought there should be an available copy of them somewhere in Marion County, and this seems to be the best spot. I haven't mailed them off yet, however. The sample copy of letter 18 shows the problem with getting a decent copy of the German. A darker printing helped some.

I do not have the originals of these letters. The translator has been dead for some years. Her brother may have the originals, but I haven't heard from him since March. The whole book of letters is 75 pages with the typed translations. There were perhaps 25 copies made. I don't know if one copy might have been given to the Smithsonian Institution where the translator did some of the work or not.

My copy has been through a flood, but my Mother's copy is in good shape. If you are interested, I don't think she would object to loaning her copy, if you would return it. I will be visiting her in Dodge City next month and could get it then, so let me know. It is the best thing I have found so far.

I did find a family history of the Socolofsky Family by Homer Socolofsky, History Professor at Kansas State University in Manhattan, Ks. His family was from Driezpitz and knew the Ehrlichs both in Russia and Marion. Their experiences parallel our families. I have written him for copies.

I also saw your Nusz booklet in the Genealogy Library in Dodge City. Someone there told me of someone:

Mrs. Nelson Jantzen (Patricia Nusz)
Rt. 1 Box 29
Montezuma, KS. 67867
316-846-2384

who had been working on the Nusz line. So I called her. She had seen your booklet and planned to write you. I had the impression she didn't have her material completely organized yet. She had been to Shattuck OK. to the library and found all the Ehrlichs I had information on.

I got copies of their information from the library there which the librarian got out of their County and City History books. Some of them were from Tscherbakowka, and then Lehigh, Kansas.

There were four Ehrlich sisters: Katherine Elizabeth (Mrs. George Ehrlich); Eva Margaret (Mrs. John D. Ehrlich); Mary (Mrs. Peter Schwab); and Amelia (Mrs. Waldemar Quindt). Their parents were Gottlieb Ehrlich and Katherina Sophia Reisig who would have been in Christoph Ehrlich's generation in Russia.
The parents of the two Ehrlich brothers that they married were: Peter Ehrlich (1819-1888) buried in Marion, Kansas
Mary Katherine Horn (1821-1891)
I have heard there is a book or two on Peter Ehrlich, but I haven't been able to find it. If you have any ideas on where to look, let me know.

There are also a bunch of Ehrlichs in Greely, Colorado, but I haven't been able to discover any connection to mine.

Have fun on your trip to visit your girls. You're going up near my part of the country.

Dear Kathy:

I'm enclosing the letter that you sent from the young man who served in Desert Storm. Guess I wasn't too clear, just old letters, not 20th Century letters. I do appreciate the thoughtfulness in sharing his letter.

I have just had UPS send my almost 700 pages of Bible records to my State Chairman. Goodness, I wouldn't have her job for anything!! My little job was almost too much for me. It was such a tedious, tedious job, numbering the pages, indexing and making sure that you had just the right margins. I'm getting too old for things like that!!

Anyway, it is now behind me and I can start concentrating on other things. I had hoped to get to the shop and get your 'letters' copied today, (Sunday), but I just didn't make it. In trying to catch up on my correspondence, it just took too much time. But I will get it done tomorrow and send it right back to you. I do hate to borrow!!!

I read through the letters, the day that I got them and my they were very interesting. When I get down to indexing them I may be sending you a list of questions about who is so and so.

Sounds like Priscilla just popped in on you. 'Fraid I don't like things like that, but she said that she had tried to reach you. Hope it wasn't too inconvenient for you, she sounds like a fine old lady and so interested in her family.

We had a very quiet Thanksgiving but a thankful one. All the family seem to be well and that means a lot. For Christmas we are going to our youngest daughter in Tulsa, OK She is the closest, geographically. It will all depend on how the weather goes as it gets closer to the 25th. As you know, there are some mightly nasty ice storms that happen up in that neck of the woods and that may just cut our trip short as we will be driving.

I plan to go to Salt Lake City in Jan so I'm really going to be gallivanting around aren't I?

I'm also enclosing some family group sheets and a generation chart that most everyone uses to help them keep their families straight. Make a bunch of copies and then

Dear Vivian,

I've been meaning to return this letter from the soldier, which got in your letter to me by mistake.

Thanks for sending the Letters so promptly. I don't know if JoAnn Kuhr ever got the copy I sent her since I haven't heard since sending them in early September.

Thanks also for sending the family group forms. I have made these on my own line, but didn't make them out on the less closely related Ehrlichs since I don't have all the information on them. And there must be hundreds of them out there loose in the world. I had Peggy Goertzen do some work for me on the Marion County records. They didn't have the death certificate on my Grandfather, but did have the will which is interesting. Also found a will of a Peter Ehrlich for whom Johanne and Karl Ehrlich signed the administrator's bond. All of this in 1888. She thought this meant they were relatives, but I'm not sure. She found 14 Ehrlich couples who had 19 children in Marion County from 1885 to 1891. The majority of these ended up around Shattuck, OK. Most of them are from Tscherbakowka, Russia, but until I get info. on earlier generations, I can't make any connections.

My Mother is here for the winter, and she has been translating the German booklet by George Burgdorff, the Luthern missionary and teacher who was active in the renewal movement. He baptised Johannes Ehrlich and his Mother in Nov. 6, 1871 or 1874 depending on which church list is accurate. His Mother's name is not listed, however.

If anyone ever turns up records of the traveling missionaries in Russia, I might get some more clues; but in the meantime, I am stumped on the genealogy search.

Hope you have a fruitful trip to Salt lake. Let me know if you turn up any related Ehrlichs!

Sincerely,

Kathy

And there must be hundreds of them out there loose in the world. I had Peggy Goertzen do some work for me on the Marion County records. They didn't have the death certificate on my Grandfather, but did have the will which is interesting. Also found a will of a Peter Ehrlich for whom Johanne and Karl Ehrlich signed the administrator's bond. All of this in 1888. She thought this meant they were relatives, but I'm not sure. She found 14 Ehrlich couples who had 19 children in Marion County from 1885 to 1891. The majority of these ended up around Bethtuck, OK. Most of them are from Fadenbakowka, Russia, but until I get info. on earlier generations, I can't make any connections.

My Mother is here for the winter, and she has been transferring the German booklet by George Burgdorff, the Lutheran missionary and teacher who was active in the renewal movement. He baptized Johanna Ehrlich and his Mother in Nov. 5, 1871 or 1874 depending on which church list is accurate. His Mother's name is not listed, however.

If anyone ever turns up records of the traveling missionaries in Russia, I might get some more clues; but in the meantime, I am stumped on the genealogy search.

Hope you have a fruitful trip to Salt Lake. Let me know if you turn up any related Ehrlichs!

Sincerely,

Kathryn O'Malley

Dear Kathy:

I have delayed answering you because I had so much I wanted to write you about!!

You asked about my SLC trip...I wish I could just sorta skip the whole thing. Thought I had told you about my accident but guess I didn't---I fractured my right shoulder on the trip!! How's that for getting attention?

It is just as good as I guess it will ever be now, but yes, I had one of those well known accidents, in the bathroom of the motel. In stepping out of the tub, I reached and pulled the towel off of the rack, but the rack came away from the wall and down I went...most of my considerable weight on my right forearm. (I was protecting my face) Jammed the upper bone into the socket and clipped the edge of the socket. Just enough that now, when I move a certain way there is a momentary catch and the ligament or muscle or whatever seems to slip into place and I'm alright. That is why I say it is as good as it will ever be, without an operation, and that I'm avoiding.

The shoulder all happened in January and soon after that a bone spur that I have nursed and put up with for years, really started making itself known. It was on the top of my right foot and started shooting pains up my leg and so I had that chiseled off the first of May and I'm still hobbling around!!! I've been so fortunate, all these years, that I really don't make a good patient.

Now, enough of my woes. Your article on Scherbakovka or Tscherbakowka was soooo good and informative. I'm so proud of you. Have you sent it to the AHSGR people for publication? You must, it needs to get out there to the dummies like myself that need to know. Until your information on the Ehrlichs and where they were from came to me, I was just making half-educated guesses at where the birth place of our Susanne Ehrlich Nusz could be located.

On a separate sheet I'm writing the questions that I need answered. In my forced immobile state, I have started the indexing of 'The Letters'. If you would, please just write in the spaces, the answers to my questions. I'm a pretty good guesser, but I don't guess on something as important as this. I will, of course send you a copy of the index, if you wish. This will be for the DAR project that I have again this year. I have collected a few more Bible records and will continue that part of the project but I'm including 'The Letters' as a separate part of it.

In answer to your question re the computer. I am quite a novice, but willing to try to do what you ask in getting the Nusz descendants names.

Also, if you wish, I could send you copies of some charts that I made of the various Nusz/Nuss families that I contacted through the years. Let me know if you want a copy of these charts.

I have not heard from Brent and Lisa Mai of Kingwood but guess I will. I have been pretty close to home but maybe they called while I was out. I'm always willing to share.

I'll close for now and get these other sheets ready for you. Thanks again for your findings on our city.

Dear Vivian,

How was your trip to Salt Lake? Did you find anything at all on the Germans from Russia? Your Nuss-Nusz booklet is mentioned in the AHSGR Journal, Summer 1992.

I just finished the enclosed article on Shcherbakovka, and am sending it around in hopes of turning up some additional information on the Ehrlichs. So far it hasn't produced any.

I also just wrote to Brent and Lisa Mai, of Kingwood Texas. They are listed in the latest AHSGR Newsletter as ~~bin~~ being interested in making up bibliographies of German-Russian history material. I gave him your name and address as one who might have some ideas. I hope you don't object to this, if so let me know.

I have a contact who has furnished additional information on Jacob Ehrlich's descendants, but I'm waiting for some additional dates before redoing his Family Sheet.

I'm going to try to get a list of as many descendants of Christoph Ehrlich as I can. The son of a cousin in Calif. sent me all the names of my Mother's sister, Lydia Ehrlich Kraft's, descendants (over 100). He put them on his computer, and I hope he will do the others I have and make lists available.

Do you have the computer capability of listing names like this, making corrections, and making copies? If so, and it isn't too much trouble, I would like to get names of Johannus and Susanna Nusz's descendants which you might have. If it's too much work, don't bother.

Hope you and your family are doing well.

Sincerely,

Dear Kathryn:

Goodness, I've been trying to get this off to you for weeks it seems. Since I'm going on this research trip to Richmond, VA the 30th of this month, I've been pushing trying to get my DAR committee records together so that when I return, with just a few more touches they should be ready to be sent to Washington, D.C.

All that is needed on'The Russian Letters' was to type in the page #'s. When I focused on that, it suddenly dawned on me that my Index won't match your letters unless you change your numbers on the pages!!! In order to meet the requirments of the DAR Library toward submitting material, I had to add my own Title page and Foreword page BEFORE I submitted the pages as you gave them to me....

So ..... your page where there is a copy of the front of an envelope and then the typewritten ...'To the Grandchildren of Lydia and Johannes Ehrlich etc and the date 1970 at bottom of page'... this is my page #3; the 'Acknowledgements' written by Harold F. Ehrlich is pg #4 etc.

Since the Russian writing or rather German was such poor copies in many instances and since I do not sppak the language, ONLY the transcripts were indexed i.e. the typewritten pages. I hope that this is clear.

Anyway, here it is. I know that many, many Ehrlich researchers will thank you for getting this out to the public.

Keep in touch and let me know how the Ehrlichs are doing.

Dear Vivian,

Enclosed in a copy of 'The Letters' and a copy of an article (trip) from the Socolofsky History which mentions the 1903 (remembered as 1901) which I thought might be of interest. Also, my latest effort at family charts.

I really enjoyed a brief visit with Priscilla Nusz Norman and her daughter, Virginia Fordham. They came driving up our drive way at dusk after an eight mile trip on a gravel road. I think they thought no one would live way out there.
If you turn up anyone else who plans a visit, give them my phone number which is unlisted 501-334 2628
I would love to have my Mother meet Priscilla again. Mother doesn,t remember the name, but I think she would remember her if she could visit with her.

We will ba taking Mother back to Ark. with us after Thanksgiving, and stay until March. So if Priscilla and Virginia come back our way, maybe they will stop then.

A cousin of mine visited Mother in Sept. and brought her the funeral booklet and clippings of my Grandmother. There are some interesting family letters, one from a cousin Fred Ehrlich whose father must have been a brother of my Grandmothers. They were beet harvesters in Brighton, Colo. in 1941. There is also a listing of Fritz Ehrlich as her father and Katherine Grasz (as her Mother) I had thought her last name was Brandt, so now I will have to find out who copied in this info.

Just send the letters back to me in ARK.

Please excuse these errors, I am not used to this machine.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving!

Sincerely,

Kathy

Dear Vivian,

Thanks so much for sending the index to "The Letters". I have included them in a "traveling copy" which I have loaned to another AHSGR member who is helping me put our early names born in Tscherbakowka on computer. I only included the English, and added a note to add 5 numbers to the pages on the original. I used my old Introduction rather than your forward, but want to give credit for your index. Is a line noting this sufficient, and should the date it was made be included?

There is a minor note in your forward which you may want to make. The visit was to Lydia's Mother only where parents are concerned, as the other three were already dead. And in the index, there was a 2nd Amalie Ehrlich, the husband of David of Torgun. Also, a second Maria Ehrlich, daughter of John.

I am working with Harold Ehrlich and trying to finish up our Ehrlich Family History this year. He has all the recent generations, and I have all I can get for now on the older ones. I did verify that Mary Margaret Eichmann was the wife of Christoph Ehrlich. This from the death certificate of my Grandfather, John Ehrlich, from Topeka records. Info. furnished by his wife, Lydia. I think the parents of Christoph may have been Peter Ehrlich and Madelene Rhumig. I have no documentation on this. I did hear that the Mormons were filming documents in Russia. They may have something before AHSGR does. There is also a group in Germany translating the names of the original colonists to the original 108 colonies on the Volga. This should be ready in 3-5 years.

When I was in Dodge City last week, I went to the Mormon Family History Center. I was really impressed with their set up. They have a computer and printer available, and all sorts of files of microfiche and viewers. I only found two groups of Ehrlichs. I think getting the Ehrlich info. entered in their system would be most benificial. Is there any reason you know of not to do this?

I would also like to get any names and dates of descendants of Susanna and Johannus Nusz to include in our Ehrlich history, if you could send them to me. I realize it won't be complete, but I'd like to include what I can round up.

Hope you had a good trip to VA. and a happy Thanksgiving.

Sincerely, Kathy O'Malley Kathy

David Evans was the progenitor in America of the line of Evans' presented herein. Of several emigrants of the name, his identity is uncertain.

One David Evans came over with William Tregoe to Anne Arundel County, Maryland, November 13, 1678, one with William Heard—1664; and another in 1674, in the ship "Dublin," of Liverpool, to St. Marys, Maryland, with John Quigby. (Book 15, p. 44, Maryland Land Office).

To Virginia came the following: David Evans, September 26, 1674 (Tolzey Book, Vol. 2, p. 254) in the "Maryland Merchant" between 1675-79. David Evans—destination Virginia.

The name "David Evans, Virginia," is in a list of scattered entries—1686 "Bristol and America." (Pages 5-15.)[1]

[1]The compiler examined this valuable book "Servants to Ye Old Plantations," in the original, at the Council Hall, Bristol, England, 1928, before its publication.

The first definite knowledge of David Evans of the line we trace, is found in Prince George County, Maryland, where the Queen Anne Parish Register records the following: "Eleanor Evans, daughter of David Evans and Anne, his wife, was born October 5, 1714. John Evans, son of David Evans and Anne, his wife, was born August 21, 1717. Arden Evans, son of David Evans and Anne, his wife, was born March 15, 1721/2."

The unusual fore-name "Arden" has been the means of distinguishing this line from others, in a list of innumerable "Early Settlers" of the surname Evans, in Maryland and Virginia.

The tradition, preserved in the family, that the first ancestor in this country married an Arden, would fix that surname on Anne, wife of David Evans. Examination of the records of an early family of Ardens in Maryland, 1690[2], revealed nothing of her origin. Unless she was the daughter of one James Arden of the "Potomac Freshes," mentioned obscurely in an Early Virginia Patent, or, unless settlers of Lower Norfolk County, among whom were Ardens, moved with Richard Bennett to Maryland, Anne Arden, wife of David Evans, must have been born in the "Mother Country."

[2]John Arden, Virginia. "Bristol and America." (Vol. 2, p. 136).

No trace of David Evans, or his son, Arden, is found in Prince George County in intervening years. In the year 1749 Arden Evans is living in Frederick County (probably on his original Prince George County land) where, with his wife, Susannah, he is remembered in the will of Thomas Ball. Arden Evans is made sole executor of this will. The clause, "I give to my daughter, Susannah Evans—one gold mourning ring" refers unmistakably to Arden Evans' wife. "To Lawerence Oneal, and William Oneal, Jr., tract called 'Token of Love.' If William, Jr., dies before he reaches twenty-one or if both die, land is left to their father" (unnamed)[3]. Francis Abston, John Jones and John Allison are witnesses.

[3]It is evident that Thomas Ball's daughter (Eleanor?), has married—Oneal. The Oneals lived in Prince George, and subsequently, Frederick and Montgomery Counties. (Will Book 26, p. 35, Frederick County, Maryland, 1749.)

Thomas Ball's land in Prince George County is located in deeds there which show that he possessed acreage in the "Potomac Freshes" (Maryland side) or the wilderness, said to have been occupied by Lower Maryland families at an early date[4].

June 25, 1734—"Arthur Nelson of Prince George County, to Thomas Ball of Prince George County, tract known as 'Token of Love,' lying on Capn. John, in the freshes of the Potomac." Joseph Belt, John Sprigg. Wit: (Deed book T, p. 124, Prince George County, Maryland.)

November 25, 1742—James Holmead of Prince George County, deeds 97 a. of "Token of Love" to Thomas Ball.

[4]"The one hundred and twenty men who came to the headwaters of the Potomac in 1669, were brought in by Capt. Robert Howson to possess the six thousand acres of land granted him by Gov. Berkley"—(Va.) (Historic Fairfax County—Choate).

"Six thousand a. above headwaters of Potomac Creek June 10, 1658, for transportation of one hundred and twenty person. Among these was Sarah Dowden." ("Cavaliers and Pioneers"—Nugent. Book 4, p. 223-320). These were Virginia settlers. A contemporary migration occurred to the Maryland side.

Arden Evans lived in the vicinity of Thomas Ball, for witnesses to a deed made by Arden Evans, probably neighbors—owned land in the same section as "Token of Love."

December 18, 1750, Arden Evans sells to Thomas Dowden, stock and household effects. Thomas Butler: William Oneal, Wit. (Deed vol. B., p. 318, Frederick County). Wm. Oneal is Arden Evans' brother-in-law?

March 15, 1733, John Dowden—a tract lying west of Rock Creek n. side of Branch called "Dowden's Branch." Thomas Butler, Wit. "To Dowdens Ordinary—now Clarksburg—15 miles from Rockville." Route of march of Col. Dunbar's Reg. 1755. "History of Carroll Manor," Grove.)

Thomas Butler's land was on Rock Creek, 1745. John Allison's land—"Three or four miles below the mouth of Monocacy River. . . . Small branch that runneth into the Potomac."

The sale of Arden Evans' effects in Frederick County point to his removal elsewhere. He has not been traced between the year of the sale (1750) and his first arrival in Bedford County, Virginia.

June 20, 1760—he, with Joshua and Jesse Abston, witness a deed there made by Ann Chiles of Halifax County, Virginia, to John Chiles of Albemarle County (100 a. in Bedford County, north side of Stanton River).

That Arden Evans had arrived before he figured in deed referred to is proved by court proceedings recorded in Bedford County minutes.

March 26, 1756, "Harden Evans is appointed overseer of the road to be cleared from Irvins Ford on the river to Clements Ford on Stanton; and Jonathan Jennings, Reuben Batman and Charles Lynchs tithes . . . work on the same road. (Oldest Order Book, May, 1754, August, 1761).

In July, 1759, Arden Evans engages in several suits in the courts. Harden Evans, again (November 23, 1762) is appointed Surveyor of the road from Wards Ford to Otter Road, by Gilbert settlement, and Paynes land on Stanton . . . Charles Lynch's and all other lands convenient . . . to clear the same. (Order Book 1761-2, p. 86.)

March 26, 1772, Arden Evans is overseer of the road from Ward's Ferry to the Warnock Road. (Book 1772, p. 18.)

Land records of Arden Evans (misspelled "Harden") in Bedford County, begin with a deed from Jonathan Jennings of Pittsylvania County to "Harden Evans of Bedford County"; land on Briery Creek, north branch of Stanton River, bounded by Lynch's line. The date is May 6, 1769. (Deeds, Vol. C, p. 284.)

"Surveyed for Harden Evans 240 a. which, with nine (9) a., a whole patent, and twenty-two (22) a. part of a patent, being one hundred and three (103) a. purchased of Charles Lynch (amount 343) a. in Bedford County, west side Otter River." (Map of Harden Evans' land, November 14, 1770, Deed Book, p. 126.)

November 14, 1770, "Beginning at the dividing line between Harden Evans' lot 22 a. and himself, and n. side his own Stanton River line," Charles Lynch owns 454 a., Bedford County. (p. 128.)

August 29, 1779, Arden Evans sells the land he bought on Briery Creek ten years earlier to Thomas Hardy. "167 acres land on both sides Briery Creek n. branch of Stanton River—adjoining above Charles Lynch—taken up by John Jinians—(Jennings) pat. September 10, 1769. Arden Evans L. S. September 24, 1771, Susannah, wife of Arden Evans, relinquishes right of dower." (Deed Book D, p. 163.)

The land office at Richmond shows a grant of 384 acres to Harden Evans of Bedford County, February 28, 1779. He is therein referred to as "assignee of John Preedle, who was assignee of Benjamin Gilbert land on Cheese Creek and Hills Creek, in Bedford County." (Vol. 3, p. 388.)

Another grant in Bedford County to Harden Evans is recorded in 1780—(Vol. E., p. 384, Land Office, Richmond.)

The above land was sold by Arden Evans, and Susannah, his wife, of Pittsylvania County, Virginia, to Richard Bloxham of Louisa County, the deed describing it as "land in Campbell Co. waters of Hills and Cheese Creeks." (384 a.) Micajah Davis, Christopher Anthony, Mary Anthony, Witnessed: 1782. (Deeds, vol. 2, p. 411.)

March, 1784—an indenture of bargain and sale between Arden Evans and Susannah, his wife, of the one part, and Richard Bloxham, of the other part, "together with the livery and seizen thereof endorsed," was proved by the solemn affirmation of Micajah Davis and Christopher Anthony, (being of the people called Quakers). (Order Book 1, p. 271, Campbell County.)

Arden and Susannah Evans are untraced after 1784, as they left no wills in Pittsylvania County. It is supposed that they followed some one of their children to a newer country, and died there.

1. Thomas Evans.
2. Arden Evans.
3. David Evans.
4. Elijah Evans.
5. William Evans.

EVANS

William Evans, son of Arden and Susannah Evans, bought land in Bedford County May 28, 1771, from William Callaway—located on north side Ivy Creek. Stephen Clement and others, witnesses. (Deed Book D.)

This land William Evans sells on August 24, 1772, to John Fougerau, and on September 28, same year, Susannah Evans, wife of William Evans, relinquishes right of dower to 100 acres conveyed by her husband to Fougerau. (Minutes Court Proceedings, p. 3, Bedford County.)

December 16, 1773, William Evans receives a grant from the state, Thomas Jefferson, governor. This land is described as "349 a. in Pittsylvania Co. n. side Chestnut Mountain—Muddy fork of Chestnut Creek." (Virginia Land Grants, Vol. E, p. 609.)

Another land grant from the commonwealth is made to William Evans, February 27, 1775, "315 a. as assignee of Benj. Clement, who was assignee of Thomas Dillard and Isaac Clements—in Pittsylvania County on Ralph's branch of Sycamore Creek." (Book E, p. 487, Land Grants, Richmond, Virginia.)

Additional tracts acquired by William Evans are:

August 2, 1777, William Evans from Benjamin Clement, Jr., and wife, Mary, of Pittsylvania County, 129 a. in Pittsylvania County, bounded by Benj. Clements, the Elder. Wit.: Joshua Abston, Charles L. Adams, Robert Bowman, and John and Randolph Bobbitt. Proved March 22, 1778. (Vol. 6, p. 75, Deeds, Pittsylvania County, Virginia.)

EVANS

II. Arden Evans, (II), a son of Arden Evans, Sr., and his wife, Susannah, went from Virginia to Roane County, Tennessee. He drew a pension there for services in the Revolution, as a Virginia soldier. He was born in 1755, and was therefore a younger brother of William Evans, who, with two other brothers, David and Elijah Evans, emigrated to Wilkes County Georgia. The name "Elijah Evans" in Roane County marriages is significant. Arden Evans' Will is not recorded at Kingston, Roane County.

All available documentary information of Arden Evans, of East Tennessee, follows:

[7]That Elijah Evans of Wilkes County is identical with the Elijah Evans of Baldwin (later Putnam County) is uncertain.

William Evans of Pittsylvania County, Virginia, son of Arden and Susannah Evans, may have settled in Georgia as early as 1779, when Wilkes County was formed. The battle of Kettle Creek, 1779, was fought on land he later owned, and was said to have been fought on land of a "small farmer."

William Evans lived and died on his Kettle Creek farm, and he and his wife, Susannah, are said to be buried at Liberty Church graveyard. However, Susannah Evans was re-married after the death of her husband in 1806, and may be interred by the side of her second husband, Daniel Slaton.

The Wilkes County records include a full account of the line of William Evans and his sons and daughters.

These are no descendants of William Evans living in Wilkes County today. His children, with their families, removed to Morgan County soon after its settlement, from whence they spread to newer southern territory.

[8]"I have seen myself the battleground of Kettle Creek which is now on a plantation belonging to Henry Slaton. Henry Slaton owned an old coin picked up there in 1876."—Lucian Lamar Knight.

The compiler of these records bought a coin from an old negro tenant on the place about 20 years ago. It was a large copper coin—about the size of a quarter, having a hole in it filled with dirt, and it had been found buried in the vicinity of the battlefield.

"Lands granted 1779 to Virginia emigrants were not surveyed and recorded until some years later. Old Arden Evans said his grandfather, David, fought in Kettle Creek Battle. Old Arden Evans walked all over War Hill battlefield with Mr. Slaton. He knew the ground well." (W. A. Slaton, Washington, Georgia.)

—V. William Evans, son of Arden Evans (of Virginia), grandson of David (of Maryland) was born 1746, married before 1773, Susannah Clement of Virginia, died Wilkes County, Georgia, in November, 1806. With all of his brothers he served in the War of the Revolution[9]. "He moved to Wilkes County, Georgia, shortly after the Revolution." (Family History.)

Susannah Evans, widow of William Evans (II), was married a second time on December 29, 1807, to Daniel Slaton.[10] On the same day that she married Daniel Slaton, and before the ceremony, she executed a Will naming her children as her heirs, and her son, Arden Evans, executor. In addition to the Will she executed a formal marriage contract under the terms of which all of her property remained her separate estate.

The Will was not finally recorded, because the case was taken by appeal to a jury in the Superior Court. On disposition of the appeal it might have been overlooked and not recorded in the office of the Ordinary.[11]

Arden EVANS died in Wilkes Co., Georgia sometime after 22 November 1861. in his Will of that date, he left his mother-in-law Mary ROUSS five-hundred dollars, provided that his old negro man Ben be allowed to select his owner and that he be provided for for life and bequeathed " all the balance of my property both real and personal be equally devided amoung my neices and nephews that may be living at the time of my death"...provided that the "amount that may fall in the division to my nephew Evan BATES , son of my sister Hannah BATES, shall be surrendered by my executors to whoever my said nephew shall select...and be held in trust for the benefit of my nephew and his children...ect." and then directed the property be sold for division. The list of those named as neices and nephews is long and includes; F. Marion BATES, Mary BATES, Thomas F. BATES, William E. Bates William and Sarah Walker and John and Evaline PATE. The only ones of my line not found in the returns of the estate are Cary and Hannah H. COTTON and David M. BATES. I suspect that only means that there are records I have not discovered or which have been lost. Also, back in Coosa Co., Alabama the estate records of William E. BATES notes money received from the "estate of A. Evans". There are a large number of other neices and nephews listed; Caroline BATES, Matthew BATES, John W. BATES, D. F. C. BROOKS, Arden EVANS Jr., David EVANS, John W. BELLAMY, J. Walker BOSWELL, Caroline BOSWELL, David BROWN, Nasa JONES, John NOWLAND, Hannah SHADDIX, Thomas WILLIAMS, Nancy WILLIAMS, John M. POSS, Nelson VAUGHN, Barbara VAUGHN, F. M. STREIBLING, Lester HOPKINS, William D. HARDY, David LUNCEFORD, Daniel LUNCEFORD, John J. RUFF and Sarah STEWART.

Dear Vivian,

Thanks a lot for helping me with the information on the line of William Boswell. I appreciate it very much.

In your letter you asked about the Boswells relationship to the Evans family. I don't think there's much doubt about the fact that Anderson Bates married one of David Evans' daughters. The question is--which one? David Walker (who has done quite a bit of work on the Evans-Bates connection says that Anderson was married to Sophia Evans. There is at least one Sophia in our line because George Boswell and Caroline Bates had one daughter named Sophia Louisa. I always wondered about this name and where it came from because it's the only one like it. I have to assume that she was named after Sophia Evans. That, however, does not prove that Sophia Evans was Caroline Bates's mother. And the fact that the name never appears again doesn't say much about its importance in my line.

I believe that Anderson Bates married Hannah Evans, not Sophia Evans, and I'll explain why. I have a copy of Arden Evans's will. Arden was David Evans's son and Hannah's brother. In his will, he names Hannah as his sister and her son Evan as his executor. Caroline Bates had a brother named Evan. She also had a sister named Susan, who married George Boswell's brother, John W. Boswell. All of these are mentioned in Arden Evans's will. George is not because he was already dead when Arden died in 1860-61. I'm going to send you a copy of this will transcribed. Please let me know what you think. I wrote David Walker several times concerning this theory but he never responds to my requests for information concerning his theory about a marriage between Sophia and Anderson Bates. He says in his data that Hannah died in 1850 in Mississippi and that she married James Bates, another son of David Bates's. I don't believe this simply because I don't see why Arden Evans would have mentioned his sister in his will if she were already dead. It is possible, I guess, that James Bates married some other Hannah Evans, but I doubt it. At any rate, let me know what you think. (Our connection to the Bates-Evans families is very important because it connects us to yet another old Virginia family that dates back to the birth of John Bates (the original immigrant) in 1598 in England.. The name Evans occurs over and over again in our family, as well as the Christian names of several of George Boswell's children: Hannah, John Anderson, Elizabeth, Susannah (Susan), Martha, James, John Walker. All of these names are closely associated with the Bates and Evans families who were very tight. In fact, several of the David Evans's children married sons and daugthers of David Bates (who, by the way, was a member of the House of Burgess in Virginia and the House and Senate in Georgia).

Anyhow: take a look at Arden's will and see if you think I'm reading it correctly. You're going to find Caroline Bates's name and several other members of our family, including John W. Boswell, Caroline Boswell, etc. (I might also mention that Anderson Bates did marry twice. He married a Nancy Combs and, in fact, had another family. He and this family appear on the 1850 census living in Talbot County, Ga which, of course, is where Caroline Bates is living with her family, including your William Boswell. Coincidence? I think not.

You also mention our cousin Wayne Elliott in your letter. Wayne lives at 630 Elm Street, Roswell, GA. He's an attorney and has done some research on the family. I'm in touch with him. Wayne is the great grandson of James Evans Boswell. His mother was Edna Boswell, James's youngest daughter. He's a nice fellow.

Anyhow: thanks again for all the information, Vivian. I needed it. Please keep in touch with me by e-mail at least and I certainly would like to get your thoughts on the Arden Evans will that I'm enclosing here.

Talk to you later,

Walt

P.S. I haven't been able to lay my hands on the entire transcription of Arden Evans' will, but I am enclosing data taken from it by David Walker. Please take a look at it & tell me what you think. Anyhow — thanks again for the help, Vivian & a Merry Xmas to you & yours.
